THE SWARTZ/ SCHWARTZ ANCESTRY and TRADITIONS

Between the years 1700 and 1800 because of wars and religion many people emigrated from Germany to America. Among these numbers were many Schwartzes. The German word Schwartz means Black. Some of these left from Germany and others from Switzerland.

Tradition says that while crossing from Germany to America our Schwartz ancestor died and was buried in the ocean. His widow and children came on to America and settled in Pennsylvania thought to be what was Lancaster County, in Germantown, Pa. where many German families settled. Lancaster County has since been divided into Lebanon, Dauphin, Cumberland, York and the present Lancaster County. Lancaster County was formed in 1729 and Berks was formed in 1752 from Bucks, Chester,Lancaster and Philadelphia. So it is very hard now to name the county and location.

This tradition of the sea funeral is kept by the descendants of at least three men, George Schwartz who was born in 1775, married Elnora Seitz of York County, Pa., his known brother (given name unknown) but who had his name legally changed to BLACK in PA., and MICHAEL SCHWARTZ Galena, Indiana.

MICHAEL SCHWARTZ (my ancestor) information given that his birth was 27 February 1767 (but now through a copy of the original Bible shows his birth as October 1764). It is said that he was born in Ohio not in PA. Location in Ohio unknown and it could have only been a short stop on their migration west. We will use PA. as his birth state. Our first record of MICHAEL SCHWARTZ is as an early settler in what is now Franklin Township, Clark County, Indiana. He was a witness to a sale of land near New Chapel, Clark County, in 1803. John SCHWARTZ also owned land at New Chapel. We also know that some of this family did not approve of slavery. After staying a short time in Kentucky (where Christopher SCHWARTZ lived). They moved across the Ohio River into the Indiana Territory.

CLARK COUNTY BOOKS SHOW THE FOLLOWING FOR 1805

Michael and Catherine SCHWARTZ sold 30 acres of a 500 acre tract to Abram Eppler for $300.00 - Grant 24 - Book 4 - Page 25 "Records for December 3, 1805" - located in Utica Township, Clark County. "Beginning at an Ash Tree on line of Grant 24 - corner to John SCHWARTZ then north 44 degrees, East 44 rods to a small creek thence South 40 degrees, East 44 rods or poles, crossing Lick Creek at 12 rods or poles to a stake standing one foot West of a Beech thence North 50 degrees East with a line of John SCHWARTZ. Survey, Number 24, part of Captain John Bailey's claim allowed him by Board of Commissioners for Military Service performed in Illinois Regiment and transferred to William Clark - covering by estimation 30 acres.

This land was willed by William Clark the surveyor of the Northwest Territory, then a part of Illinois originally Virginia, to his brother, Jonathan Clark his heirs or assigns, one tract containing 500 acres.

William Clark died either in November or early Dececmer 1791. So this land was purchased sometime between 1791 and 1805.

In the Indiana Territory, 2nd day of February 1807 the list of voters for Clark County, shows MICHAEL SWARTZ cast his vote for Thomas Downs.

MICHAEL SCHWARTZ was a trustee of the New Chapel Church, Clark County, in 1811 and a Class Leader at a Quarterly Meeting at the Salem Church in the Silver Creek Circuit, June 3, 1815. It is not known where he was for the next five years. In that Floyd County was formed in 1819 from Clark and Harrison Counties, he may not have moved. Clark County History records him as settling in Georgetown Township, Floyd Co. in 1820. That must have been on the old farm near Edwardsville where the old church stood(SWARTZ MEETING HOUSE) and which was visited during the SWARTZ/SCHWARTZ first family reunion August 23 to 28, 1927. This cemetery is located in Georgetown Township, Section 27 near the Edwardsville/Galena Road.

FLOYD COUNTY RECORDS GIVE US THE FOLLOWING

Whereupon he to-gether with MICHAEL SCHWARTZ and JOHN SCHWARTZ, his sureties, entered into an acknowledged Bond in the penalty of One Hundred Dollars conditioned according to law, he the said DAVID having previously taken the oath required.

MICHAEL SWARTZ - Deeds

A book was found tucked away in the recorder's Office titled "Abstract of Entries of Government Lands" in Floyd County, Indiana.

This book is a ledger type book, and is not the original, but it is a copy. (Should note that several pages of the original were folded up in the back of the book). These are notes given to me from Walker McCullough, Jeffersonville, Indiana.

On page 7 of this book he found an entry dated 28 March 1815 showing MICHAEL SWARTZ 160 acres, southeast quaarter, Section 27, Township 2, Range 5. On my Floyd County map, this is the section containing the SWARTZ cemetery, in Georgetown Township(noted above).

From the HISTORY OF THE OHIO FALLS COUNTIES, Vol. II, page 274. The Methodists, being the most numerous, probably erected the first church building in the township. This was for many years known as the SWARTZ MEETING HOUSE, and was built about 1820, or earlier, in the northern and eastern part of the township, on the farm of MICHAEL SWARTZ.

The latter was a zealous Methodist, and not only gave the land upon which the building stood, but did, perhaps, more than his proportion of the labor in erecting it. As of April 9, 1967, THE DAR noted that the building was gone and that the cemetery remains were in a much overgrown condition, and plan to check the graves for a Revolutionary Soldier, Daniel Keller, who was to have been buried there. There are a number of SWARTZ names among those buried in this cemetery.

The New Chapel United Methodist Church is located ½ mile northeast of Watson on the New Chapel Road. Indiana's oldest Methodist Church with continuous services - organized in 1801. The first church was of logs which became too small for the many members. A second larger log church was then built. The graves all faced the church. The church grew and a new frame church was built at the other end of the lot and the graves since face the new church. Some of the logs from the second church were used in the present church. I visited this church in 1983 with Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Fry. Edith Fry has given me so much information on the JOHN SCHWARTZ line.

The road leading from Newmans Ferry to Corydon excepting those living on the premises of said David Dunn and Elizabeth Smith.
PAGE 66 Tuesday 23rd May 1820

Do assist the said Superviser in keeping all the aforesaid roads in repaid. And that the said Superviser cause the said Superviser cause the said roads to be worked and repaired agreeably to an act of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana for opening and repairing Public Highways approved 29 January 1818. Ordered that MICHAEL SWARTZ be appointed Superviser for the Term of one year from this date of so much of the road leading from Oatmans Ferry to Vincennes as lies in Franklin Township.

MICHAEL SWARTZ'S name appears many times in the records of landownership. In his later day he owned property in a little place he called "Germantown" but later changed to Galena, Greenville Township, Floyd County, Indiana. He was tall as Abraham Lincoln which was 6 feet, 4 inches. In the winter he would get up at midnight and take his lunch of bread and milk. It is said that his doors stood open and the stranger passing through was asked to stop and dine within. He died in a frame house in Galena which was still standing in 1929. Galena, Indiana is a small village on Route 150 about eight or nine miles northwest of New Albany, Indiana. Michael died 4 June 1849. After the death of his widow. his small estate was sold by the heirs to Michael Schwartz(son) January 13, 1860 consideration $8.30. Instrument D, Lots or Grant 5. 12-13 High Street, Galena, Section 21, Township 2, Range 5.

A few of these early settlers squatted on the river bank in what is now New Albany Township, near Oatman's Ferry, but subsequently became settlers of Franklin Township.

The hands living on Indian Creek were required to assist Michael Schwartz in maintaining this road and keep in repair. Oatman's Ferry was on the Ohio River a few miles below New Albany. The Oatman's living near the river bank found themselves called upon to carry people across the river that they concluded to establish a ferry. The Oatman's for a long time carried settlers, their families, and goods over free; but the demand upon them finally became so great that they constructed a flat-boat which they used for wagons and heavier freight, and used a skiff for passengers, charging a small fee for the work. After the county was established in 1816, they obtained a ferry-right; and Oatman's ferry is frequently mentioned in the early records of the county. It was at Oatman's ferry that a large majority of the early settlers of Franklin, Georgetown, and Greenville townships crossed the river. The flat-boat would hold the wagons with the oxen attached, and the load carried by the wagons,beside the people and was worked across by a stern paddle.

HINTON vs BARKER order of Constinriance made on yesterday herein set aside, Wit of Inquiry waived, and the Judgment entered herein in the office confirmed, etc.

Ordered that Summonses issue returnable to the next court again Aaron Wilcoxon, MICHAEL SWARTS, William Combs, Eli McVey, Aaron Prather, Thomas Pile, Robert Beggs and John Petitt to show cause if any they have why they shall not be fined for not swearing to their taxable property. (Copy as shown.)

Michael Schwartz while traveling from PA. might have stopped for a time in Ohio. We know that he lived close to Elizabethtowm in Lancaster County,Pa. They seemed to migrate to East Pennsborough Township Cumberland County,PA and then to Newberry Township, York County,PA. from 1790 to 1800 and by 1800 in Indiana. Michael married Catherine Scheetz born 15 August 1777. She was born near Harrisburg, Pa. and they married in 1798. Her father, Jacob Sheet was listed in PA. 1790 Census with(1) Male over 16: (4) Male under 16 and (6) free white Females. Catherine was one of these daughters. Jacob Sheets was one of the oldest and longest continued blacksmiths at Greenville Township,Floyd County, near Galena, IN.

Michael Schwartz first lived in Jefferson County, KY. near Louisville. He was a witness to a land sale in Clark County in 1803. In the 1807 Clark County Census he is listed as voting. He had land next to John Schwartz who married Elizabeth Oldweiler. A sister of Elizabeth Barbara Oldweiler married George Hikes and lived in Jefferson County, KY, John also had a brother, Christopher who married Catharine Omer and they lived in Jefferson County,KY. Later both families moved to Clark County, IN. We are sure all these families came to-gether from PA. and are related. We are still searching for Michael's parentage. (NOTE: More about these two men in another section of this book.

PRECIOUS MEMORIES OF YESTERDAY CAN BECOME PRECIOUS MOMENT OF TO-DAY.

SECOND GENERATION OF MICHAEL SCHWARTZ

M.1* JOHN SCHWARTZ/SWARTZ the first son of MICHAEL SCHWARTZ b February 1799 in PA., traveled with his parents to Kentucky and then into the Indiana Territory across the Ohio River. These early families that moved into the Indiana Territory and across the Ohio River did not believe in slavery. We find him first in Clark County and then Floyd County in the little town of Galena which his father MICHAEL SCHWARTZ had named Germantown. From this information we believe Michael lived, and John was born in Germantown, PA. or near vicinity. John died at Putnamville(Putnam County) Indiana 27 Aug 1863 at the age of 74 years, 6 mo., 7 days. John married Susanna(h) Friedley 11 December 1825. She was born near Lexington, KY. 6 September 1803 and died at Putnamville(Putnam) Indiana 16 September 1866 at 73 years of age. Susanna was the daughter of Jacob Friedley and Elizabeth Moyer. Both John and Susanna are buried in the northwest corner of the Putnamville Cemetery. (The stone for Susannah was broken and I had it repaired in a new base in 1983). Their marriage is shown in "First Marriage Book, page 36, Floyd County, Indiana". License issued 10 December 1825, married 11 December 1825 by George Locke, Minister of the Gospel.

John and Susannah (Friedley) SWARTZ settled on a farm near Corydon (Harrison County) Indiana. Then they moved to Battle Ground) Tippecanoe County). They stayed here only 6 months(question this information), then moved two miles northwest of Putnamville.IN., where he spent the remainder of his days. As they arrived at his brother-in-law's,John Stewart Perry on a Saturday and as he did not believe in traveling on Sunday, they liked the country side and decided to stay in Putnam County.

THREE SWARTZ/SCHWARTZ MEN OF

FLOYD AND CLARK COUNTY, INDIANA

This book is especially designed for the researcher of the many SWARTZ/SCHWARTZ and descendants and those researching other family allied lines.

This book will contain a section on the
MICHAEL SWARTZ line (1764 -1849):
JOHN SWARTZ/SCHWARTZ line (1767 - 1824):
CHRISTIAN/CHRISTLEY/CHRISTOPHER SWARTZ/
SCHWARTZ (1772 - 1843)

There are many gaps in generations and information lacking because of lack of interest or failure to answer letters. Sometimes there will be inaccurate age given but I have put it to-gether so that someone in a later generation can go on from this point.

The numbering system is based on the order in which children are born (when birth dates are unknown, the order of birth is given according to the logical assumption of every two years.)

MICHAEL SWARTZ will have the number 'M'

JOHN SWARTZ will have the number 'J'

CHRISTOPHER SWARTZ will have the number 'C'

The children of Michael SWARTZ - 1st generation will be numbered M.1. M.2. M.3. M.4 etc.
The second generation will be numbered M.1.1. M.1.2 etc.
The third generation will be M.1.1.1 M.1.1.2 etc.

JOHN SWARTZ will follow the same as above: J.1.

CHRISTOPHER SWARTZ will follow same as above: C.1

The symbol * after the code number of the child indicates that the complete record of that child is carried forward in the next generation.

The book will be indexed by code and name.

The coding will have the first three as(M.1.1.) and page number.

HACKLER and JENNINGS and DICKINSON and it's SWARTZ CONNECTION

There is a Swartz connection to the Hackler name by two sides of the allied family of Jennings. Sarah Jennings was born 27 February 1826 in Missouri. It was during a time of great stress due to the fact that it was during the turmoil and later the start of the Civil War.

Sarah was the daughter of Mary and John Jennings. Mary was born in 1805 in Virginia and John being born around 1795, VA. There seems to be a large family born to them. Elvira, Sarah, Morse, Mary, Martha, Elizabeth, Doctor P (not a real Doctor just his name) and Julie or Julia.

Doctor P was born in 1834 and two years later Sarah. By the time they were old enough to get married the Civil War was indeed a reality. On 2 January 1853 Sarah married Henry Hackler. On 15 May 1853 Doctor P. married N. M. Hackler. Presume they were brothers and sisters.

Henry Hackler enlisted in the Missouri Infantry on 12 November 1862. He enlisted from Jasper County with Captain Dorsey, Company I 16th MO. Infantry. He received his last pay 3 April 1863 from Major Monroe. He took part in the Confederate attack on Helena, Arkansas which began 4 July 1863. He was severely wounded and captured by the Union Forces of Major General B. M. Prentiss. As a wounded prisoner of war transported on the hospital ship R.C. Wood to the U.S. Hospital at Memphis, Tenn. He died 14 Aug. 1863 and the archival record noting his death gives "Death Record from Tenn. Register 590."(I assume this was something the Confederate States assembled and that it is now in the National Archives.) The 16th Regiment was regrouped several times, as all Confederate troops were. Other names for it are Jackman's Regiment, the first, third, fourth, seventh, 14th, 15th and 16th regiments. At the attack on Helena it appears that this group was the 7th Division part of Parsons Brigade in General Sterline Price's Division.

The slip noting his wound said 'G S right heel'. There is no way to know what the hospital clerk had in mind but my guess is that it meant a gunshot wound in the right heel.

After his death Sarah married Robert Dickinson. They had identical twins named Florence and Flora. They married brothers Frank and William Edwin SWARTZ. This is where the connection with the Swartz family makes Hackler an allied family.

Dr. John Edward Kitchen spent his early manhood on the farm where he labored faithfully to support himself, his widowed mother, his half-sister, and half-brother. After leaving the farm he engaged in the drug business at Oakland City, Indiana. After closing this business he went to Cincinnati and entered medical school. In 1878 he located at Bone Gap where he continued the practice of medicine until his death. He served on the Soldiers' Pension Examining Board during the administration of President Benjamin Harrison. In his early life, he studied vocal music in Southern Indiana and Illinois. He was a Bible student and believed the teachings. He quietly filled his place in the community in a gentlemanly manner. He was loyal and ethical in his associations with other practicing physicians.

In his Obituary it mentioned three granchildren, Russel Carlin, Wilma Kitchen and Loralea Kitchen. These would be daughters of either Lee or Grant Kitchen.

I have been unable to find markers in the Putnamville Cemetery for the father,Daniel, the baby Susannah and Mary Alice. Many of the Swartz family are buried in the northwest corner and possibly a simple stone with names is buried in the ground. Daniel and Mary Alice I am sure are in a common grave as both died in September 1873. Susannah(Friedley) Swartz was broken at the base. Also the markers for the two Civil War boys,sons of John (1799) and brothers to Daniel(1830). Samuel Hamilton Swartz d. in the service of his country and member of the 115 Reg. Between 1885 and 1890 Sarah(Hubbard) Swartz moved her family to a farm in Somer Township, Champaign County, Urbana, Illinois. This was after the death of her husband Daniel Swartz d. 24 Sep 1873. They were still in Putnam County, Indiana in the 1880 Census. In the 1880 census Cloverdale Township, Putnam County, Indiana Mattie Swartz lived with the family of John Bellman, Merchant as a servant and was age 21. Mattie taught at Marriott School in Somer Township. She was engaged to be married and had her wedding clothes prepared. Mattie and her mother Sarah Swartz died on the same day 24 September 1890 of typhoid fever. They were buried in the same grave at Yearsley Cemetery. Adda Florence, Joseph Wright and Sarah Lu Ellan also died with in the month in 1890 of typhoid fever. Sarah Swartz with her family lived north of the Stewart School House. Champaign County Hearld(Newspaper) of 1 October 1890 carried the information of the Swartz family, five deaths in the family inside of a month and four in one week. Ada Swartz taught in the Stewart School north of the city. (NOTE:) Is it any wonder that my father Daniel (M.1.3.8.) never spoke of his family. I grew up thinking that I had very few Swartz relatives.

N. B. Halstead

M. 1. 3. 8. DANIEL SWARTZ

DANIEL SWARTZ, grandson of Michael Swartz, and the third child of John and Susannah(Friedley) Swartz was b. 6 Feb 1870. The 1830 Clark County Census shows three (3) Male under 5 years which would be Jacob, David and Daniel(M.1.3.) John and Susannah Swartz settled on a farm near Corydon(Harrison County) Indiana. As the Counties were changing it is possible that they might not have moved from Floyd County. (Information I received and question) John and Susannah Swartz moved to Battle Ground (Tippecanoe County) Indiana but only stayed six months. When they left they stopped at Putnamville, Indiana to John's sister, Sarah (Swartz) Perry (M.8.). John did not believe in traveling on Sunday as he was a very religious man. They liked the country and stayed in Putnamville. They located two miles north west of Putnamville, where they spent the remainder of their days. The 1887 History of Putnam County, Indiana mentions that John Swarts(z) and wife were among the founders of the Methodist Episcopal Church at Putnamville which was organized in 1829 at the house of John Stewart Perry. There are several discrepancies in the birth dates from the Census and the family bible records. We shall use the family bible records. Then the rest of the children would be born in Putnam County: John, Infant girl, Michael, James, Simon Peter, Ezra Kemp, Abraham Evans and Samuel Hamilton.

John not only learned the potter trade(M.1.4.) from John S. Perry, but in those days the men made much of their furniture. It is said that John made six kitchen chairs for each of his sons. The six chairs given to son Daniel(my g father M.1.3.) was taken with Sarah when she moved to Urbana, Illinois. After the deaths in 1890, there was no one left but my father(M.1.3.8.) Daniel Birtrum(sometime known as Albert or Bert. These chairs then traveled with my parents to Monroeville, Indiana, later in the home of my sister Marie(Swartz) Howell (M.1.3.8.3.) and as of 1985 are in the home of Helen Howell,DeLand,FL.

As I mentioned the Pottery of John S. Perry, I think a little more should be written about it. In 1974 the Indianapolis Museum of Art printed 'INDIANA STONEWARE' Putnamville was a rich site for the production of Indiana pottery. John S. Perry was a potter by trade, having served an apprenticeship for five years and three months. He began his pottery business shortly after he arrived in Putnamville in November, 1831 and then moved his operation to his farm on Section 22 of Warren Township, Putnam County.

Eventually his son, Ezekiah H. Perry (M.8.1.) learned the trade from his father. We know that he carried on the pottery business until 1871, then owned by his brother, Issac(M.8.2.). By 1879 the pottery business carried the name of Perry and Boyd. His sister Mary Catherine Perry married Tiberias Stewart Boyd and whether this is the name connection. In this Art Pottery book figures Numbers 28,29 and 61 are pieces made at the John S. Perry Pottery. Figures 5 and 6 show a collection of the early Perry Pottery taken on the porch of Minnie Lewis of Brazil, Indiana. I am fortunate in being given one of the storage jars from Minnie Lewis,which I treasure. Some of the original jars had John S. Perry/2 marking. It is said they made all size jars which were loaded on wagons and driven by horses to Louisville for the storage of malt.

M. 1. 3. DANIEL SWARTZ

Daniel (M.1.3.) married Sarah Ellen Hubbard at Putnamville, Indiana. Sarah Ellen was the daughter of John Hubbard and Elizabeth (Vest) Hubbard who had also moved to Putnam County, IN. There were supposed to have been eight (8) children which several died young. We only know of Albert, Elizabeth, Mary Ann, Sarah Ellen, Marcus Lindsay and Elijah.

Sarah's sister, Mary Ann Hubbard married John Swartz(M.1.4.) a brother of Daniel. John Hubbard of English Ancestry was born in Garrard County, Ky., 3 May 1797 and died 27 October 1861 at Cloverdale, Indiana. John's father was Joseph Hubbard of Virginia and his mother Elizabeth Holland born in Fayette County, Ky. Sarah Ellen was born near Lexington, Ky., 2 August 1833. Her mother, Elizabeth Vest born 9 June 1798 and died 4 April 1880 at the age of 81 years. Elizabeth's father was Edward Vest and mother Mary Kitchen. John and Elizabeth(Vest) Hubbard are buried in the Cloverdale Indiana Cemetery.

After Daniel (M.1.3.) died in 1873, Sarah must have been having great difficulties raising her family. She lived on 40 acres in Cloverdale Township, Section 4 next to John Swartz and Elizabeth Hubbard. David, brother to Daniel, wrote to his brother Simon Peter from Patoka, Indiana, where he was living, on 6th of March 1874 that if they would collect money owed by their brother Ezra Kemp they could help Sarah. Otherwise he would help by taking a mortgage if she could get a good title to the land.

Sarah Swartz was interested in the education of her childrem.She promised on the 28th of May 1884 the sum of Two Hundred Dollars to the State of Indiana for the use of the Common School Fund to be paid on or before the 28th day of May 1889. If unable to pay at such time ,the promised mortgage may be wherewith sold by the county auditor. There was a school located on the Sarah Swartz land. We know that they were still in Putnam County, Indiana in 1889. Mattie and Adda were school teachers.

After the many deaths in this family, James Monroe Swartz went west(as mentioned before) and we have never been able to trace him. Lillie May was only a few months old when her father died. After Sarah's death she was raised by Jacob Swartz(M.1.1.) (1826-1893)and we did not know where she was living until this research started in 1927. The only one left of this family was my father Daniel Birtrum (M.1.3.8.)

Daniel being a farmer was interested in the northern Indiana section of the country where two of Minnie's brothers had located and bought land. William Luther near Columbia City, Indiana and Henry Luther near Huntington, Indiana. Daniel bought eighty(80) acres about three miles north east of the little town of Monroeville(Allen County) Indiana. He then built a large barn and I remember he had it painted with his name and date (D. A. SWARTZ , 1909). Since I was born in 1909 they must have moved from Champaign, IL. in 1908. Later he bought another eighty(80) acres on the way to Monroeville. He was an industries hard worker and cared for his implements and his farm animals. He had a driven well near the house with clear perfect water. There was a motor in the well house which pumped the water to the horse trough near the barn. There was a gate between the horse barn door and watering trough. I many times would climb on the gate and reach out to pet the horses as they came out of the barn. Our pony, Teddy, did not like it one time and turned and took a nip from my right themb, which scar I still have.

He also had a beautiful pacer horse, which Marie drove as she was teaching school about 10 miles from home. The government men went through the country conscripting horses for World War I. Some cavalery officer had a fine mount. In 1918 Daniel decided to return to the center of the state(Indiana) and bought 173 acres of good land out of Pentleton,Indiana. My mother had received $5,000 from her father, Christian Luther, as her part of the settlement of the estate. She wanted to live in town or at least near a town. She bought thirteen (13) acres at the edge of Fortville, Indiana. This was about 25 miles from Indianapolis. These were the days of the interurban, a single car running from Muncie, IN. to Indianapolis and also was routed in front of our house. It made a stop ¼ mile down the road, and both Marie and Hazel commuted to Indianapolis where they went to College. My sister Bessie and her husband, Edward Dawson, and small son Daniel moved with us on to this farm. With misappropiation of funds and trust, Daniel lost the farm and they left and went to Nebraska and later to Canada. This being during the depression years, Daniel(Burt) as most people called him, worked on the Big Four Railroad which went through Fortville, then went to Gary, Indiana where he worked in a steel mill for a time. He then went back to farming at Goodland and Rensselaer (Jasper County)Indiana where he was able to buy a small acerage. Daniel Swartz died at the age of 80 year(cancer of the Prostate) on 10 August 1950 and is buried in the Calument Park Cemetery, Merrillville, Indiana in the family lot. (Lot 493 Sec. 6 . My father, Mother, Marie and Stanley Howell are buried there. My marker is in with the inscription Wife of Walter Elsie Swartz EBERHART 1909 -).

Lillie and Henry McCoy were very wealthy, lived in one of the finest homes on North Meridian Street, Indianapolis, IN. This section has all been leveled and high rises and office buildings have been built on North Meridan(1985). Their house had beautiful French furniture and Edith was given everything that a young girl could ever want. They would come to our home at Fortville, Indiana(1918 and later) with their chaffeaur. Lillie was sick for many years after Henry passed away and her colored housekeeper took everything of value that she could lay her hand upon. Her two maiden sisters were too ill to be concerned. Edith was told about her parentage sometime before 1970 and became very bitter and tried to make amends with her sister Dorothy Britton. Dorothy has since become acquainted with the children and grandchildren on a visit to the west coast. Donald, Sr. has been in Indiana several times and visited Dorothy.

THE PEACEFUL HILLS OF PUTNAM COUNTY, INDIANA was written by Edna May (Swartz)Smith, Terre Haute,IN. in 1972. This is a delightful memory of our Ancestor.

PEACEFUL HILLS. That is what they are to me. No hurry up, keeping with traffic or the fumes from exhaust.

My grandfather, John Swartz(M.1.4.) was born in Floyd County, near Corydon, IN. 12 Dec 1931. When only seven years he moved with his parents and family to Putnam County, near Putnamville, Indiana.

He lived in the south part of the county the rest of his life, spending the last 55 years on his farm, three miles south west of Cloverdale, IN. In 1852 he married Mary Ann Hubbard and to this union were born eight children.

"Uncle John", as he was called by his acquaintances, was an industrious man, and made a living on a farm which was very hilly and where many others would have failed. He tilled the bottom ground of the 108 acres of Doe Creek. The up land was in pasture and timber. He raised a lot of pigs which were his main income. Also selling eggs and butter in town. There were a lot of walnut, butternut and oak trees which he sold for lumber. He managed quite well and always seemed to have money in his pocket. Of course, his needs were not great. His five boys went to other parts of the mid-west to make their homes and raise their families on better land.

M. 1. 4. JOHN SWARTZ

For many years, he was alone in his older days. I was permitted to go to his farm and stay during the summer vacation. That is when I learned to love those peaceful and quiet hills.

The Doe Creek ran through the 108 acres. After a heavy rain it would get on a rampage and overflow the bottom ground, tearing out the 'water gaps' which was the fencing across it. But it also kept the bottom ground fertile.

Somehow, Grandfather felled a large tree across the creek. On one side it was on the part of a cliff and the other end was fastened on a lower branch of a poplar tree. We would climb up a ladder to get on it. That way we could get across the Creek when the water was high. He had also nailed planks on it and fastened a wire which we could hold on to get across. This was called the 'Foot Log'.

The cliffs on the one side were lovely. Vines grew on them and other wild flowers. There was also a large cave out of which we could get a cold drink from the spring which was always flowing. There was a hollowed gourd or rusty tin cup which was kept there to drink from. Never knew of this spring going dry.

In the later years, my sister 'Dorothy' and I would take our families out there for a picnic. Would eat our lunch near the spring. Our four children would wade in the creek, which had a rock bottom and was slick as glass. All had a time staying on their feet and many times would go down into the water. All of it is pleasant memories.

There were fish in the creek - suckers and blue gills, also a few cat fish. We would keep an eye open for snakes, too.

Every one had wood burning stoves. Some would still use a fire place. The 'wood box' had to be kept full of wood. Some smaller pieces for the cook stove and the larger ones for the heating stove. A stove was needed in every room as the houses were not warm as of today. Remember the heavy iron skillets, pots and tea kettle that was used then? All of these are'antiques' now.

Would go to the fields with Grandfather and help him shock the oats, and put the hay in the hay stacks. His two faithful horses,"Barney and Nellie" hitched to the farm wagon or plow were his main way of farming. One of them, hitched to the farm wagon or buggy would take him to Cloverdale to do his 'trading'.

The 108 acres rather isolated and the house sat back off the road. The children had to walk at least two miles to get to a one room school. The teacher taught all eight grades. The closest schools were the 'Scrabble Hill', 'Poplar Grove' or 'Oak Point'. The Oak Point is still standing(1972).

He also had another 40 acres of ground which was also hilly and wooded. He called it the 'Upper Forty', and was about two miles from the home place.

Also remember him telling of when they first settled there, some Indians came through and stopped at their place. They saw the little dog that they had as a pet for their oldest daughter, 'Sarah Catherine'. They wanted the little dog, but he never wanted to give it up. He was afraid to refuse them as they might harm them. But they finally left without the dog.

Also remember the larger hooper in which they put their wood ashes to get the lye water that would run off after they poured the water over them. This lye water was used to make soap.

There was also the smoke house which was used to smoke the meat after butchering time. There never was better tasting hams, bacon and sausage. They would use hickory wood bark to do the smoking.

Grandfather has been gone 55 years now.(Written in 1973). The farm has passed through several different families. The government has bought up all the bottom ground to be used as a back water for the large Cataract Lake which has been put out there. A house has been built up near the road by the present owner who has it for a week end rest home, to get away from a large city. Hope he loves the peace and quiet as I did. We still go out past there two or three times a year. Would love to stop and just wander around there, just to see if the black haw bushes, the paw paw trees and hazel nut bushes are still there.

Edna (Swartz)Smith M.1.4.7.2.

(NOTE by compiler) I was perhaps 8 years old when my father Daniel Swartz M.1.3.8. went to a family re-union. We stopped at the home of above John Swartz, walked across the 'Foot Log' and had a drink from the spring in the overhanging cliff. This John Swartz would have been my father's uncle and John would have been about 87 at that time. He was not home as he still was farming. He d. 1919.

Student and Peace Concerns...

By David Swartz, Paris, France

How would you feel, what would you do, and what would you think as a new arrival with only a suitcase in hand, $20 in your pocket, and perhaps (if you are lucky) an address or two in a strange, foreign city? But that is not all. Suppose also that you do not have a return trip ticket in case things do not work out; or maybe even if you did, you could not return to your home country for political or other reasons. Suppose also that the country from which you come, your home, is considered underdeveloped by Western standards; that is, your culture, your society — all that you have ever known — are considered inferior. Maybe you are able to speak the same language as the people of this new city, but somehow the words do not always have the same meanings.

"It would be tough," you say, "and fortunately I am not obligated to be in such a situation." But many are, and Mennonite Board of Missions at Elkhart is initiating an experimental type of mission in one such situation — the African student population in Paris, France. Of the 45,000 foreign students now in France (official figures, which are definitely conservative), at least 15,000 come from Africa. Half of the 45,000 are enrolled in faculties in the Paris area. This means that Paris probably has the largest international student population in the world and certainly the largest African student population in a Western country.

Francois (right), a team member, meeting an African student

Housing poses one of the enormous problems for a city and a national education system unprepared for and inflexible to this mass arrival of Africans. Not only the physical structure of the city and the educational system have not adapted, but also the mental structure has not adapted itself by showing a sense of cultural flexibility with the non-Western neighbor.

What can an American Mennonite Mission possibly do in this type of student world where, because of America's foreign policy in various parts of the world and because of the oppressive roles often played by the Christian missions during the period of colonialization, the very words "American" and "mission" arouse suspicion?

We have begun by being students ourselves — by studying, by living in student-populated districts, by eating in the student restaurants, by going to the cafes frequented by students, by first trying to sense and feel what it means to be a foreign student in Paris.

But study and reflection alone, without some form of concrete involvement, is not the answer. It is something like faith without works. It has been obvious from the start, however, that considering the present climate of anti-American anti-mission feelings among students, an independent American Mennonite project in Paris is not what is needed. The path we have chosen has rather been one of picking up parts of existing but outdated local structures and remolding them with the hope of giving them new life.

One such structure on the left bank is a large, old student resident center located in the Latin Quarter and owned by the Paris Protestant Student Association. For more than a year we have been participating in the creation of a new project in this building that, as a traditional student foyer, has ceased to have a "raison d'etre." The project is the result of the initiative of a small local Protestant group that has accepted us as full-fledged participants in the program.

An ecumenical team, to which we contribute one member, is initiating a program that will consist of temporary housing in the foyer for new arrivals, a network of lodging contacts throughout the city, and a training program for European volunteers leaving for service programs in Africa. This training program will be conducted in large part by African friends of the project. In addition, a theme of research will be developed around the problems of development, and in the non-Western countries, around the problems of language and communication between generations and cultures and the theological significance of such an enterprise that combines the involvement of a Christian team in both the practical and analytical problems of this particular world. The foyer is also the address of several church-related agencies having some kind of interest in African development.

A second involvement is with an African Protestant Student Association that, after several years of disillusionment, lack of direction and financial resources, is now beginning to find new life. We feel that our financial aid and personal contact with the group are helping to bring about this positive change. The Association is at the moment trying to develop a program that will consist of a welcome service for new arrivals, material assistance for emergency situations, regular fellowship meetings that would attempt to provide a church experience, small discussion groups on topics ranging from Bible study to social, cultural, and economic concerns, and an annual national congress.

This latter involvement, unlike the first, is at the initiative of a group of African students themselves, although the team in the foyer works in liaison with African groups. This reflects the strategy on our part of relating both with efforts initiated by African students themselves and those sponsored by French groups.

These involvements are practical touch-points which allow us to work in a "non-Americanized" and non-traditional type of "mission" form but which, at the same time allow us to contribute a believers' church and social ethics perspective to the situation in which we are involved.

Note: David Swartz and Marlin and Ruthann Miller work part time with African students: Dave primarily with the Protestant Foyer; Marlin and Ruthann primarily with the African Protestant Student Organization. ●

Dear Bro. Simon

"Yours came to hand last night. I am truly sorry that Sarah is in the condition that she is and would like to help her. And will if you can get it from Kemp. Give her what he owes me which is about $1.5 dollars($150.) You have correspondance with him and if you can get anything from him I will let her have it all on the condition that she can get a good deed for her part of the farm and will give me a mortgage on it which I promise shall not be interfered with as long as she is Daniel's widow. If you cannot do anything with Kemp I am willing to let her have $100 dollars between this and or by the 1st of September next on the same condition(or more if it is necessary). If she cannot get a good title to the land it is not worth while to spend money with it. If she can and will give a mortgage to me and secure me in case that she get in debt in the future. A first mortgage of $100 or $150 dollars would likely prevent small creditors from selling it out from her. I do not know anything about the matter nor what the land is worth. But it seems to me that it ought to be worth more than $2,000 dollars and pay all debts, and leave her something in the bargain. You are more acquainted with all the circumstances than I am and are nearer there and if this proposition will do any Good I will try to do it. I have about $3,000 dollars on interest but that is my hope for family or myself in case of ailing health. You can get what information you can and let me know and I will make arrangements accordingly. I wish you would try Kemp and if you have any hope I will send you the note immediately.

Our 2nd Quarterly meeting is to-morrow. I hope that we will have a season of refreshing from the presence of the Lord. My health is tolerable this winter. The children are in good health. Cynthia's health is poor.

Your truly,
Your Brother David

G. NOYES TALCOTT
Patriarch Of Pioneer Family

G. Noyes Talcott Dies At Age 89

G. Noyes Talcott, jeweler, financier, civic leader and prime source of local history, is dead at age 89.

Talcott was a native Olympian, born here Oct. 9, 1892, to George Noyes and Addie Jane (Chambers) Talcott. He grew up in a house on the corner of Eastside and Sixth streets, where the old Washington Junior High School now stands. He was a member of the first freshman class in William Winlock Miller High School, then located on the Capitol Campus at the site of the present war monument.

As a youth he delivered milk in tin cans to houses in the area and worked as a farmhand in Puyallup and east of the mountains before entering the University of Washington, class of 1916. He belonged to the Delta Kappa Epsilon fraternity. By 1916 he had served a year's apprenticeship as a goldsmith in Seattle and at age 23, assumed management of the family firm, Talcott Jewelers, founded by his uncle Charles in 1872. Charles Talcott designed the Seal of the State of Washington in 1889.

Talcott was married in 1916 to Elizabeth Richardson and they marked 65 years of marriage this year.

He was lifetime honorary member of the Elks Lodge and a charter member and past president of Olympia Rotary. He served on the Olympia Port Commission for 12 years and then on the Northwest Rivers and Harbors Congress and on the board of directors of the Pacific Coast Port Authorities Association.

More than fifty years ago he was a founder of Capital Savings and Loan and was instrumental in founding the Olympia Credit Bureau. Thirty years ago he became a director of Olympia Federal Savings and Loan. He served as its president for 20 years and had been chairman of the board.

He turned management of the family business over to his son Richard 25 years ago and had served as chairman of the board of Talcott Brothers. Richard N. Talcott has since managed Gunderson's in Tacoma, which the firm acquired in 1976, and Talcott's grandson, Richard N. Jr., now manages the Talcott store in Olympia.

Talcott was a member of innumerable historical and civic associations and had received awards from most for his lifetime of contributions to planning and financial guidance for many of the institutions in Olympia, including St. John's Episcopal Church, of which he was a member, St. Martin's College, St. Michael's Catholic Church, the State Capitol Museum, the State Historical Society and the Central Olympia Revitalization Effort.

He was an avid traveler and climber far into his later years and held a membership in the Olympians, a climbing group in Aberdeen. He celebrated his 80th year climbing a mountain near Mexico City.

Surviving are his wife, at the family home; one son, Richard N., Olympia; one daughter, Elizabeth Jeanne Roberts, Tacoma; 10 grandchildren and 13 great-grandchildren.

The funeral service will be held at 2 p.m. Friday, Dec. 4, at St. John's Episcopal Church, with the Rev. James Blundell officiating. Burial will be in Odd Fellow Memorial Park under the direction of Mills and Mills.

Although Mr. Talcott was not an active member of the Olympia Genealogical Society, he will be remembered by many as the speaker at our first annual November dinner. He had been a member since that time.

A memorial fund has been established in his name. Contributions may be sent to the society in care of our regular mailing address. At the end of six months, the funds will be used to purchase books for the library in Mr. Talcott's name.

M. 2. GEORGE SCHWARTZ

Dear Minnie Lewis, Brazil, IN. Vancouver, Wash.
Nov 23, 1945

I am Ethel M. Talcott now living in Vancouver for the past 6 years. You wrote to me at Wahkiacus, Wash. in 1930 sending me a history of the family. It was from your letter I located my two cousins, Lillie M. Stevens and Libbie Woodard and visited them near Spokane. They have both visited me here in Vancouver. Lillie died and is buried with her husband in Kennewick, Wash. and Libbie lives there with her husband, Mr. Woodard. H.M. Wallace and daughter came through here a few weeks ago, Mrs. Wallace having died last March 6th in Olympia. I tried to see her about 3 years ago when I went through Olympia but she was not home. Their address there is 708 East 4th Ave. The daughter is now living in Montana with her family. They said they were in Indiana last summer and visited around. Perhaps they saw you. They were in too much of a hurry to tell me of their trip.

My father and brother are living within 8 miles of me here just across the Columbia River in Portland,OR. My mother died there in July 1930.

My husband, I visited our son in Seattle recently where he is going to the University. He is 18 years old and has had 2 years at the University - is a radio announcer and taking electric engineering. He was a straight A student and valdictorian in High School here and has maintained a 3.75 grade in the University. He is making $265.00 per month working from 6 P.M. to mid-night at the radio studio and goes to school afternoons. We drove to Seattle and stopped on our way home in Olympia to see the Talcotts there who operata a Jewelery store. There were 3 brothers established the business in 1872 and they designed the seal for the State of Washington in 1889. The Talcott family have a Genealogy book which traces the family back to 1558 in Colchester, England where John Talcott died in 1604. John 3rd., born in Braintree, England came with Robert Hooker to Boston, Mass. Sep. 16, 1632. They founded Hartford, Conn. in 1636. John 4th., married Mary Cook and had 5 children. Hezekiah, the youngest born Feb. 24, 1686 married Janeiana Parsons of Durham, Conn., 1711 - 1st. child John, born Nov. 26, 1712 in Durham, Conn., married Sarah Parsons of Hadley, Conn.,1737. Had son Hezekiah born June 18, 1739 married Sarah Johnson, Middletown,Conn., March 28, 1765 and had 9 children. The 8th child Parsons Talcott born in Durham 1780 married Lois Wetmore, March 4, 1803. They had 9 children, youngest Ulman Gardner Talcott born July 27, 1825 in Lyden Lewis County, N.Y. He married Emma Clover Feb. 25 1852 and had 6 children. The 3rd child was Gardner Ulman Talcott born March 17, 1862 is my father-in-law and lives in Portland, Oregon. There was a Governor Talcott during the Revolution, Governor of Conneticut. They found the family crest on his tombstone and they sell these Genealogy books for $50.00 each. This jeweler in Olympia has one.

Our family history is very in complete and I know my grandfather DAVID LOCKE SCHWARTZ married Lucy Zimmerman, a Holland Dutch woman and Minnie Pectol has their family bible I think with dates, in Galena, Indiana or her Post Office is Georgetown, Indiana. My father's memory is no longer good enough to be sure of anything but if we could get a better history to-gether, think it should be done.

My father married Lucy Parsons, her folks were English from London, I could give you the date on that, January 13, 1884. The Wallaces told me of Miss Flora Vandament and Miss Marjorie Perry living at 1105 Polk St. Oregon City. They are some relation and I've thought of writing them or trying to see them as Oregon City is just a few miles from Portland.

David LockeSchwartz had three children. I know where his oldest son's children are in Illinois and Nebraska and here in Washington. His daughter has three children living - one in Georgetown: a son in Indianapolis and one in New Albany. My father is the youngest and only one living, in Portland now and is 83 years old. My brother and I were their only children. I have a golden wedding picture of the family of my grandfather's golden wedding. I was about 5 years old at that time. Taken at Galena, Indiana. It is well preserved and Michael, the mute is in the picture as he always lived with my grandfather. He was killed by a runaway horse after we left there.

If you would contact Minnie Pectol of Georgetown, Indiana she should have some of the history as my grandparents lived with her mother until they died.

I should like to trace my grandmother's history to know who her folks were also my mother's folks from London, but if each one of us could give some information we probably could make what history we have more complete. I should like to return to Indiana to see the old home places but we've never felt we could afford the time or money for the trip. My husband would come with me but our son doesn't think he would have the time. It probably is too far away from him to be interesting. I went on a trip to New York State in 1919 with my husband and his folks back to their old home.

We were in the restaurant business in Portland at that time after the 1st World War and were young and making good money at that time. I just past my 59th birthday this month but people guess my age at about 48 and having an 18 year old son helps to fool them. I'd be glad to hear from you and with all good wishes of the season, I am sincerely yours.

REF: History of White County, IN. Pg. 441(1883).
William Stanford came to Floyd Co.,IN. when a young man, bought a farm on which he lived 7 years and taught school in connection to farming. In 1857 he passed a year in Tippecanoe Co.,IN. then taught school 2 years at Independence, Warren Co.,IN. Then bought a farm in same county on which he lived four years when he returned to Tippecanoe County and farmed on shares awhile (before Military). He served to the close of the war, returned home in the summer of 1865, but soon left again. Went south on business and has not been heard from since. It is supposed that he died soon after leaving home. In the spring of 1867 Mrs. Stanford(Elizabeth Ann) brought her family to this township(White County) purchased a farm of 80 acres of land which she placed under cultivation and which she increased to 200 acres. Mrs. Stanford was left with six children, 3 girls, 3 boys, all married.

Family History from George F. Baker, husband of Marth Ellen Stanford, Martha's mother was Elizabeth Ann(Swartz)Stanford b. 1828.

The Stanfords in England belonged to the nobility of England and the father of William Stanford, who married Elizabeth Ann Swartz, was Duke of York, England. The son was of high scholarly attainments and was educated for a physician. Son William was born 1828. But, when arriving at the stage when young medical students must take dissection of human bodies, he revolted; whereupon his father, like many English Lords, undertook to force the young 'gent' into obedience.

The results were, that William left England, came to America and came to Indiana. He taught school, in some one of the higher institutions of learning, possible in New Albany, or perhaps in Louisville,KY. He spoke and wrote seven different languages, I have been informed, and was great in extending his acquaintances, and as such happenings occur, he became acquainted with his future wife, Miss Elizabeth Swartz, of Floyd County, IN.(M.2.3.)

The above is 'hear-say' to me, but I confidently believe the whole of it is true. My wife is the youngest child of that marriage, and my twenty-three years acquaintance with my mother-in-law bears out the fact that she always spoke the truth. I never heard her make any remark in a 'joking way', but every word was such as she expected to 'give an account, in the Day of Judgment.' Allow me to say, here, that my wife is much like her mother, and the noble traits our three sons have, I attribute to their mother, and such traits, why, of course - they, the boys picked them up. You couldn't expect me to condemn myself? eh? (M.2.3.6.)

REF: Counties of White and Pulaski,IN. F.A. Battey & Co., Chicago,1883. Round Grove Township for History of Thomas H. Rowe. Biographical Sketches, pages 437 and 438.

Thomas H. Rowe was born in Madison County, Ohio, May 17, 1835, and is the elder of the two children born to William T. and Mary A. (Hair)Rowe, natives respectively of Virginia and Clermont County, Ohio. Thomas Hair, the father of Mrs. Mary A. Rowe, was among the first to settle at Fort Washington, now known as Cincinnati. William T. Rowe was born in Fluvanna County, VA., February 8, 1795, and in 1803 moved to Ohio with his father and settled near the then village of Chillicothe. He attended school seventeen days only, but was an extensive reader and became a well-informed man. His parents died when he was aged about seventeen, leaving under his protection six younger brothers and sisters, for whom he found places as best he could until his married brother took them all to his home. At the age of eighteen, he became a mail contractor, and until 1850 ran a mail stage line from Chillicoth to Columbus, Ohio. For many years held extensive mail contracts in several other states. He purchased real estate from time to time until he was the owner of a well improved farm fo 2,200 acres in Madison County, Ohio. For many years, he was Probate Judge of the same county. In the fall of 1849, he moved to Benton Co., IN.and bought some 500 or 600 acres of land, and was there elected County Commissioner in 1850. In 1853, he removed to Tippecanoe County, bought a farm of 200 acres, and there died, June 1, 1878 (family information gives his death as 7 July 1885). He had been a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church for more than sixty years.

Thomas H. Rowe was employed on his father's farm and in carrying the mail until twenty-one years old, when he began life on his own account. In 1864, he came to this township and settled on 600 acres of wild land owned by his father, of which 320 acres are now his own. For the first fifteen years, he was exclusively engaged in herding, but subsequently added general farming. He was married, March 12, 1862 to Mary C. Swartz, a native of Floyd County, IN., and daughter of George and Sarah(Brown) Swartz, of Pennsylvania. The two children living born to this union are William B. and Jessie M. Mr. Rowe is a Democrat and has served six years as Justice of the Peace, and four years as Trustee of this township: he is a Freemason. Both Thomas and Mary are Methodists.

Territorial Pioneer of Kansas

This is to certify that

David Swarts (I)

was a Kansas Pioneer who came to or was born in Kansas in 1852 and who settled in Leavenworth county. This certificate is issued to honor those who have assisted in making Kansas a Great State. This is issued to Susan Louise Scott Anderson a direct descendant to the above named pioneer, who has proven the person named was indeed a Territorial Pioneer of Kansas. The result of this being the preservation of the history of the State of Kansas.

Issued this 2nd day of January, 1982

STATE ARCHIVIST

Earl R. Lindemuth Jr.
PRESIDENT, KANSAS COUNCIL OF GENEALOGICAL SOCIETIES

2 January 1982

Mrs. Susan Anderson
5607 Bookland Road
Alexandria, VA 22310

Dear Susan:

Enclosed are your Territoral Pioneer Certificates for your Kansas Ancestors, Samuel Stonan Scott, James Bradford Dugan, Edward Gard Scott, William Campbell Logan,David Swarts, Thomas Jefferson Atkinson and Issac M. Atkinson. We appreciation your allowing us to add them to the Annuals of Kansas history. The Kansas Council anticipates publishing a book sometime within the next two years containing information on the pioneers we have gathered through our Certificate Program. We will notify you when our book is ready.

You asked about the Kansas Council. It was formed in 1974 to help Kansas genealogical societies in forming, in their operation, and to promote genealogical education in the State of Kansas. We publish a periodical that individuals may subscribe to (last issue enclosed for your review). There are 42 genealogical societies in Kansas and 38 of them are members of the Council. The Council is presently sponsoring a reprint of the 1887 Kansas Atlas (brochure enclosed) plus the Pioneer Certificate. We will be publishing other material on a state level or material within counties where there is no genealogical society. We encourage feature articles and queries.

If you would like to apply for certificates for your parents and other relatives, all you need to do is write and let me know who you want the certificate issued on and to whom. You have already given excellent proof of the line of descent. You should show how the person that is applying is related so they can come in on the same ancestor. The only additional cards you will need is those for the relative the certificate is issued to.

You mentioned you had just started research in July 1981. How fortunate you have been to find so much so soon. I was born in Ottawa, Franklin Co., KS 20 June 1933. I have been doing research for 20 years and cannot fill out a five generation chart. I can't even find the death date of my grandmother or where her family came from. Courthouses burned in both counties where my parents were born in Missouri, so it has been difficult. I moved to St. Joseph, MO three years ago, but am still on the Board of Directors of the Kansas Council. I am helping Betty Jo as she has gotten behind on the certificate issuing due to taking a full time job.

We thank you for your participation in our program. Should we be able to be of further service to you, please let us know.

Sincerely,

Joyce B. Hensen

David and Mary(Coffee) Collins) Swartz settled on Kickapoo Island, in 1852, two years before Kansas Territory was opened for settlement.

(See Territorial Pioneer of Kansas) page 171.

Kickapoo Island, like Cow Island belongs to Kansas. The large two-story brick home at the mouth of Salt Creek, near Kickapoo, and which Mrs. Thomas E.(Catherine Esther Swartz)Daniels, still owns, was built of brick made in a private kiln, on the farm, in the early days. It is a familiar landmark, noticeable to passengers on Missouri Pacific trains between Atkinson and Leavenworth. Mrs. Thomas(Louisa Swarts)Atkinson lives on the site of the old Kickapoo Indian Mission, established in 1833, and remnants of that historic landmark may still be seen on the premises. (Written for the Leavenworth Times newspaper of Leavenworth, Kansas sometime in 1930.) Mrs. Atkinson was known to the relatives as "Aunt Lou".

NOTES on the Thomas Eli Allison Daniels and Catherine Esther Swartz which have been given to me for this history of the family.

Thomas Eli Allison and Elizabeth(Wegley) Daniels had five boys and one girl. John, Charles, Tom, Jim and George (who died) and Mrs. George Reagan.

Eli Daniels bought 160 acres of land in what is now Kansas City-Westport. West Port, MO. was an old name for Kansas, MO. The take-off point for boats north and south and for wagons in every direction. It was at the point where the Kaw(Kansas) River emptied into the Missouri River. Kansas City, KS. was on the western side of the Missouri River. Once he put a wagon in a train going to Santa Fe. It got as far as Belvoir, Kansas, twelve miles from Lawrence. The oxen wandered off in the night and were never found. He built a beautiful eight-room brick home on the Kansas bluffs near Kickapoo, Leavenworth County, Kansas. Bricks were made on the property, walnut woodwork from trees cut on the land. They could watch steamboats from the porch. He was a wheat farmer and had a cider mill (oh such good cider).

Catherine Esther Swartz married Thomas E.I. Daniels. Her father David Swartz built the first flour mill in western Missouri. As Thomas was a wheat buyer he married the mill builder's daughter(K)Catherine Swartz). He also did some freighting on the Santa Fe Trail.

Some memories of Bessie Harness Boyd about her grandfather Thomas E.A. Daniels and the home at Kickapoo, KS. The front door was at the center and opened into a wide hall which ran from front to back. On either side of this hall were two large rooms. The walls of these rooms were quite high, probably twelve or fourteen feet. The dining room and kitchen were on one side of the hall and on the other side were the parlor and master bedroom. There was a fire place in this bedroom. In the hall was a wide stairway leading to the hall upstairs. From this upper hallway, a doorway led to the four upstairs bedrooms and to the balcony above the front porch.

Young children were not allowed to enter the parlor unless accompanied by an adult. The grand piano filled one corner of the room and on the piano the family kept a few pieces of cut glass the little hands were not permitted to touch unless an adult carefully held the precious article. An unusual piece of art work hung on one wall. This was a deep wooden picture frame in which were displayed the 'hair flowers' made from the locks of hair of various members of the Swartz family. It seemed that someone traveled through the country and made these by wrapping small strands of hair around very fine wire and then twisting the wire into patterns of blossoms or buds. The hair of each individual was worked up separately but variety in the overall display was achieved by arranging the lighter and the darker'flowers' in a harmonious manner. Incidentally, the name of each donor was attached to his or her own separate flower. It was interesting to note the various shades of the hair used in the arrangement.

Some information about Eli Daniels. When he died George Reagan(daughter's husband) bought the 160 acres of land in what is now Kansas City-Westport. George bought the 160 acres for a nominal sum and sold it for a fabulous price.

William Clark Quantrell, guerilla chief of the Civil War period was a school teacher in Lawrence, KS., before he took up the cause of the Confederacy and organized his guerilla band. Thomas Atkinson was the son of Isaac Atkinson, a native of Virginia. Isaac Atkinson came to Leavenworth County in 1854, homesteading 160 acres of land adjoining the present townsite of Kickapoo, Kansas. This land has been owned by the Atkinson family all these years.(History of Leavenworth County by Jesse A. Hall: Historical Pub. Co., of Topeka, KS., 1921) pg. 423. Wilson Ralston Atkinson, a brother of Isaac Atkinson, came from Virginia and homesteaded 160 acres of land also. CALIFORNIA PLUME

This picture shows Mrs. Atkinson and her cherished "California Plume" quilt, made by Mrs. Charity Atkinson, her mother-in-law, and given to her as a wedding present in 1870. Taken at her home where she has lived for the past sixty-two years on an original grant of land near Kickapoo, Kansas. The evening before this picture was taken, a terrific hailstorm broke all the windows and otherwise damaged the house. Note the battered appearance of the roof. Mrs. Atkinson is over eighty years old and is listed by the Kansas State Historical Society as the oldest living pioneer woman in Kansas, having been brought to Kansas by her parents, David and Mary Schwartz, in 1852 when she was only three months old.

NELLIE AMELIA SWARTS
M.4.15.

Nellie Swarts/Swartz Tallman was one of the early settlers in Kansas Territory. Nellie Tallman's parents were sturdy New England type, never afraid of hardship, and ready to face the difficulties incident to pioneer life in a new country. With vision of greater possibilities of life for themselves and their children they turned northward from Weston, MO., to Kickapoo Island, a part of Kansas territory in the Missouri River. Here Nellie was born and the records disclose that she was the last surviving person whose birth place was Kansas before it became a state. When married in 1875 this couple preempting their homestead four miles northwest of Clearwater, their relinquishment from the U.S. Government bears the signature of General Grant, then President of the United States. Nellie was a splendid example of self-culture finding time for reading and meditation which gave her a mental alertness through all her life. She loved poetry and among her possessions was a fine collection. She was a loyal and devoted, religious woman.

SWARTS FAMILY HISTORY...TOLD BY SAMUEL PRENTICE TALLMAN-grandson(M.4.15.3)

David Swarts was born in Pennsylvania and the family moved to Indiana when he was a boy. Greencastle and Vincennes I remember hearing them talk about. He learned the trade of a foundryman and millrite. He moved Louisville, KY. to work at these trades. He became proficient in handling steamboats. He had financial reverses "signed notes for others" and had to pay these off. He heard of a new opening at Weston, Missouri in 1849, a chance to go west and put the machinery in a flour mill. He put the machinery in the Perry Mill at Weston, Missouri and the Whilhite Mill at Leavenworth, Kansas later. He took up a half section of land on Kickapoo Island opposite Weston, Missouri. This is where Nellie Amelia Swarts, my mother, was born. Among her father's activities was running a ferry boat from Weston to Kickapoo Island. He carried settlers and their families across the Missouri River. Other crossings was at Westport, now Kansas City and St. Joseph, Missouri.

Nellie Swarts' father operated a shingle mill and a wood yard where the steam boats that operated on the Missouri River took on their fuel. Many of the Mississippi River boats would travel to Omaha, Nebraska. The War Eagles whistles could be heard as far as Kansas City. They would stop and get fuel anytime night or day. Negros would carry the wood aboard by a gang plank. The large boats had steam calliapes and the negros would sing. The boats would go far into Montana, when the water was high. Ft. Leavenworth was near. Many times the boats would be blue with soldiers going to fight the Indians. The Missouri River was the main artery of travel to the Northwest.

Nellie Swarta remembered the first railroad, when it was built to the west, The St. Joseph and Hannibal RR. She recalled Civil War days, one was when a man came around on horse back at night and told of the Lawrence Massacre and called all the able bodied men to go to the defense of Lawrence. After a Union victory they would burn tar barrels to celebrate at Weston. The Steamboats were fired into from the Missouri side during the Civil War. This caused the boats to hug the island shore making a new channel and started the land to go into the river. There was a great flood that came down the Missouri River in the sixties. The island went into the river and the Swarts family had to start a new home near Kickapoo, Kansas.

Nellie Swarts married Charles Wesley Tallman October 20, 1875 and lived on a farm near Wichita, Kansas. Their house was close to the Chisolm Trail and cattle, horses and sheep from the Southwest passed by their house. Settlers going to the Southwest passed by in wagon trains. Great quantities of buffalo bones were brought to Wichita, Kansas and were shipped to the East by the trainload. Living in Wichita the covered wagons went by to Oklahoma in a continuance stream both in 1889 and 1893. The oldest sister of Nellie Tallman was a playmate of Buffalo Bill Cody's sister in Weston, Missouri. The family resided there about five years before coming to Kansas.

from Sister Lou Atkinson(M.4.13.)
to Nellie Swarts Tallman(M.4.15.)

I will send you a line this eve to tell you I got a telegram last night from Mexico telling me that Brother John (Swarts) was dead.(M.4.8.). Died at noon May 3rd asking what to do with the body. T.E.A. said he would help send for it in the fall. Dave would have gone right away but did not feel able to stand the expense alone and he would not help now. We are all well as usual. Nellie(Atkinson Gwartney) has a baby boy born Sunday night, both are getting along all right.(M.4.13.1.). Sister is nearly worried to death about her boys. It is awful to think he(John) was so far away and no one to do a thing for him. I wrote to him to come home and I would do all I could for him but he did not come. Babe came home last night to settle up her things and take some to Kansas City. She will stay with her mother. Sister Lou

Part of a letter written to Nellie Swarts Tallman by her niece Lula Daniels. Lula Daniels is a daughter of Kate Swarts Daniels. The Aunt Mary and Aunt Lib she refers to are Nellie Tallman's half sisters(much older than Nellie). Uncle John is Nellie Swarts Tallman's brother, Aunt Mollie his wife but they were divorced. Top was their daughter. Aunt Lou was Nellie's sister four years older. Her name was Atkinson. Kitty was her daughter.

Pa and the men are hauling corn from the Island now. George goes with them. He does not seem so very strong, but thinks he feels better than he did but he don't look any better.

John Harness is going to teach the Island School this year. They have had quite an interesting time over schools in our neighborhood. Charlie's address is 2024 Chestnut St., Kansas City, MO. We are expecting he and Babe to come home soon. I will send you the hair that was intended to be sent a long time ago, and the ages that asked me about.

I wrote to (Top - Topsy was John Swarts Daughter) to send me a flag that father gave me a long time ago, but do not know whether I will get it or not. I wrote to Kate sometime ago but had no answer. (Part of Quote). My Cousin Edward Buckanan, lives in Des Moines, Iowa. David Swarts, who was born in 1804, was my Great-Great Grandfather. His daughter, Elizabeth Swarts,(M.4.5.) married my Great Grandfather,Joseph Lancaster Buchanan, according to my old letters. They were married in Leavenworth, KS. There were some old deed which help to connect the families. One is signed by David and Mary Swarts, transferring title to some land which, I am sure was on Kickapoo Island. This Island was in the Missouri River, and was in Kansas Territory. Then in the state of Kansas until a flood caused the river to change its course. Also at that time Weston, MO. had a steamboat landing, but when the river changed its course, it left Weston landing inaccessable and the Island was in Missouri where it has remained ever since.

I have a postal card that was written to my Grandmother in 1888 by B. Atkinson, a cousin to my Grandmother.

(There was more written to Susan Anderson which agrees with the information that has already been printed.)

MY GRANDPARENTS AND PARENTS

By Helen Tallman Carr

My great grandmother was born in Scotland. My grandmother was born in New Jersey. My great grandfather Tallman came from Holland to Pennsylvania. My grandfather came by steamboat down the Ohio River and from there by stage coach to Miller County, Missouri. My grandmother was a real Daughter of the Revolution.

At one time confederates took my grandfather 20 miles from home before they released him. Meanwhile, they had taken what money he had. Sam's story has more about this.

My mothers father, David Swarts, took a half section of rich land on an island in the Missouri River opposite Weston, Missouri. He built the first flour mill in Kansas. He helped bring the first commercial steamboat down the Missouri River. His home was an underground station which often sheltered slaves fleeing to freedom in the north. He was prepared to give vaccinations for smallpox to any who needed them. I have the tiny scapel took he used for this. It is well over one hundred years old.

My grandmother, a small slender woman, went as a mid-wife when needed by these pioneers. Tin types show her to be black haired. This was brushed primly back and was done in a knot at the back of her head.

My grandfather was tall and thin. My mother was the youngest of her family. There were three daughters and one son. Strange to say, my mothers brother fought with the confederates. That might have been because of his wife's influence. Because of this, my Uncle John was alienated from his family and I never heard much about him.

Seventeen years older than Nellie, Aunt Kate chummed with a sister of Buffalo Bill Cody.

My mother has said that while her father was sitting on his porch reading his Bible one Sunday morning, Confederates on the Missouri side took shots at his white haired head. Fortunately, those shots just left bullet holes in the logs of the house. God must have protected my grandfather. Missouri was full of "bush whackers". In the present war in Vietnam that type are referred to as guerillas. A history making flood destroyed part of this island. My grandparents moved further over into Kansas in Leavenworth County. My mother told of seeing houses and bodies of people and animals going down the swift current of the Missouri River with that great flood. My mother was born January 9, 1856 on the Kansas side of the Missouri River. Kansas became a state January 30, 1861.

Charles Wesley Tallman was born December 21, 1844. My father came to Leavenworth County with a relative. They were engaged in market gardening together for awhile. There were three brothers and three sisters in his family in Missouri. Charles Wesley Tallman came with Worth Chambers and George and Will Taylor to the Wichita area in 1872. Charles Wesley Tallman married Nellie Swarts on October 20, 1875. They came to Sedgwick County. She was nineteen years old then.

He bought a filing on the farm now owned by Sam Tallman. There is a signature of President Grant on that deed. My father served in the Union Army when a very young man of 18 years. He said it was safer in the Union Army than in the State of Missouri in war times. After the war was over he voted for Abraham Lincoln. Although he was not old enough to vote, he was allowed to do so. Any soldier who had fought in the war was privileged to vote.

There was yet time to finish proving up on this land. There was a claim house on the place, made of wide boards of rough white pine stripping over the cracks.

A GLIMPSE OF THE EARLY KANSAS TERRITORY

Story compiled by Stephan M. Bell

Jesse James isn't a member of our family or even close, just a neighbor of my great, great-grandmother. Nellie Swartz Tallman was born on an island in the Missouri River up near St. Joseph, Missouri. The island was pretty good size and several families had farms located on this island. The land was good rich river bottom soil and the crops were wonderful when the river didn't go on a rampage and flood the people out. Farmers are gamblers also just a different type of gambler from those who go to Reno!

The James Clan lived nearby and when the raids have been successful they lived "pretty high on the hog!" But when the men on their trips around the countryside, robbing and other illegal activities didn't have good luck the times were pretty lean. Unlike the farmers who gambled with the weather and insects and etc, the James Clan gambled on whether they would be able to fool the local law men and get away with the ill-gotten gains.

So my ancestors felt sorry for the family and helped feed and take care of the women and children. Was a pretty good example of what happens to those who live off others and do not take care of their families.The island where all this took place was finally washed away in a flood.

(NOTE from the editor). This will be part of the family history of my Pioneer Ancestry who helped to form the State of Kansas. John Stewart Perry and his son, Isaac Sylvester Perry(M.8.2.) had a pottery shop east of Putnamville,IN. In the 1850 Census of Putnam(Warren Township) Co.,IN. it lists John Swartz, then 19 years (b. 12 Dec. 1831) living with John Stewart Perry family and learning the potter trade. John Swartz m. Mary Ann Hubbard, Jan 1852. John was a brother of my great grandfather, Daniel Swartz b. 19 Apr 1830, who married Sarah Ellen Hubbard, a sister of Mary Ann. John Stewart and Sarah Perry were the great grandparents of Minnie Lewis.

John Stewart Perry in his pottery shop made all kinds and sizes of clay containers for grain. liquids and for household uses. The clay containers from this area(Putnam and Clay Counties) was made from the best clay soil. (I am fortunate to have one-editor.)It is said by the family that they would haul wagon loads of large size containers many miles to Louisville, KY., to be sold to malt and distilled spirit companies. About 1969 while in Putnam County, I saw one of the large(possibly 5 gal.) containers that might have been used for the storage of grain.

The quart and half gallon containers were used to can their fruits and vegetables for the winter months. I am fortunate in having one of these (without the lid) given to me by Minnie Lewis. There are a number of these early Perry pottery pieces on display at the Clay County Historical Society/Museum (Now in the Old Post Office) at Brazil, Indiana.

From: Ridpath - "PUTNAM COUNTY HISTORY of 1879-1887" The Methodist Episcopal Church of Putnamville was organized in 1829,(this should read 1831 or a little later per Minnie Lewis,) at the home of John S. Perry, Rev. Thomas J. Brown officiating. John M. Jenkins, John S. Perry, Luke Davis, John Swarts(Swartz) and wife were among the first members. From early church records, James Swartz(b. 22 May 1819, brother of John b. 20 Feb. 1799 and Sarah b. 6 Jun 1812) were also early members.

John Schwartz b. 20 Feb. 1799 m. Susannah Friedley 11 Dec 1825 must have moved from Harrison County to Tippecanoe County for a short while and then to Putnam County by 1836. John Schwartz had a big apple orchard at the northwest edge of what is now the Penal Farm. There were still some of the trees standing about 1930/32. John Stewart Perry, one of two men that purchased the land for the Putnamville Cemetery where you will find many Swartz, Perry families buried. The Indiana Historical Society has published "U.S. 40 A Roadscape of the American Experience"which crosses Indiana and passes through Putnamville, Indiana.

PUTNAM COUNTY HISTORY: Indiana Sesquicentennial, 1966 Chapter XV Warren Township, page 358, reads:

The Perry pottery business dated back to 1831 when John Perry settled at or near Putnamville where he engaged in the pottery business until 1845. Then he moved to a farm he had purchased in Section 21 7 22. Here a pottery business was developed in the northwest quarter of Section 22. A son Isaac(M.8.2.) purchased the business in 1854 and continued its operation. A brother, Hezekiah(M.8.1.), may have been associated with him. By 1879 the concern went under the name of Boyd & Perry.

John Stewart Perry was born 11 Oct 1807 in Jefferson County,KY. Mr. Perry was a man of public spirit and enterprise, and gave all of his children a good education, two of his sons being college graduates. In politics he was formerly a Whig, and afterward a Republican. He served as township trustee, and meetings were held at his house in Putnamville for several years.

M. 11 JAMES EDWARD SWARTZ)SWARTS

ROXANNA SWARTZ GODBOLD wrote this letter to Minnie Lewis from Tempe, Arizona on 28 May 1928.

We came to Arizona for my health, and I have improved wonderfully. When the twins came over four years ago, I was bedfast afain over six months but am quite strong again. We have three children, Garland, 13 years old, finished 8th grade this year and till be in High School this fall. The twins, Gelmer and Gertrude, are 4 years old.

We live (8) miles from Phoenix where sister Gertrude and Elizabeth live. Sister Elizabeth and her family are in Tuscon, AZ. for a few weeks. Gertrude, our oldest sister is our mother. Her hair is white as snow. She is only 52. Her husband is in poor health. Has a cancer in the roof of his mouth. She only has one boy, 14 years - Wayne - Quite a musician, plays for radio often.

How I would like to go to a Swartz reunion and would love to take papa back if he could stand the trip. He is here with us now. Is very feeble and almost helpless. He is so shaky, can hardly eat and dress himself at times. He came over from Whittier, Calif., where sister Florence lives. The first of April caught a bad cold on train coming over and was real sick for over a month. Was afraid he wouldn't pull through, but he is so plucky, he would get up every day and dress. He doesn't like Arizona and wants to go back to Calif. to live. Sister Florence is a little frail thing and children in school and a baby. I have been trying to put him off for another month or so. He thinks he could go over and board and room but of course that is out of the question. Don't realize his condition. He has dizzy spells and falls over. Not safe to be left alone.

He said he received the pictures. He has great many pictures and relics. They are in his big trunk at sister Gertrude's The tall slender one is papa and plump face or heavy set is Uncle Jim as we called him. I have heard papa speak of his Uncle John Perry so much, other day he was talking about him. I have a little jug on the table now before me,that he gave to Uncle Jim. We prize it very much. So many pick it up and admire it. Papa has one that was made for a money jug. We children all used it to put our pennies in. A friend of mine picked the jug up one day and I told her how old it was and who made it where it was made and that you had a clay plant. She said she had a little souvenir from there and had been through the plant.

I received letters from Will Swartz asking some questions. I took them over to Gertrude's and never did get them back. I will look in his truck when I go over. I will ask papa any questions you want. I will try and get the answers while papa is here with me. He is apt to drop off any time but his mind is clear. There might be questions he could answer about some of the older generations that would help you.

Papa says there is a daughter of a Mrs. Lewis came to Kansas with them that lives in Alvin, Texas now. Do you know her?

PARENTS of JOHN SCHWARTZ

John Schwartz is coded as (J) in this section.

SCHWARTZ, is the German spelling, however, you will find it spelled in many ways such as Swartz, Swarts, Swarz,Swartsee Swars etc. The american spelling became Swartz, however there are parts of our family which retain the German spelling with the (ch) Schwartz. Tradition says the family were wealthy merchants, very active on the Public School Boards of Education after coming to America. They were active in building schools and churches. It is said that they loaned money to the United States Government during the war of 1812.

We feel that the original John Swartz(Schwartz) that died ca 1791 was a Palatine Emigrant to America. In this early period of our history it was not an easy protocol to leave their county(Germany). They had to specify reason, and receive permission to emigrant to the Electoral Palatine. Most of those who intended to emigrate and who received permission to emigrate, not the emigration itself., did emigrate. Most of them gave the reason 'to emigrate to Pennsylvania'. In view of scarcity of documentation and lack of funds to pay the local taxes when leaving, they were willing to take their chances before the tax vultures took away everything. The unfortunate middle class or lower class farmers knew they might only have money enough to reach Southampton. There they at once got into a new slavery - the debet slavery of the shipping entrepreneur. The ships would certainly,according to our present day standards, have been the worst type of soul-destroyer, for on them only a very questionable maintenance was allotted to these people on their long voyage. For instance the journey from Wertheim to Rotterdam was a rule made by water. There were more than 40 toll-stations to be passed, everywhere there was a delay,many time's intentionally in order to force the people to stay overnight and shell out their money and when after 3 or 4 weeks they reached Rotterdam the little money they had with them was nearly gone and they still had to reach Southampton.

If the tradition is true(we have no proof)that the father died and was buried at sea, we can understand. This might have been John d. ca 1791 father. In the Beery Family History: Ref. is made to the father of George Henry Schwartz who married Eleanor Seitz, was the one who died and was buried at sea. The widow with 5 sons settled in Lancaster Co.,Pa. George Henry was born 1775 in Hessen, Darmstadt, Germany. We have come to the conclusion that it was George Henry's grandfather who died at sea.(No proof).

The Schwartz men were hard working farmers when they came to America. They may have first gone to Germantown.Lancaster County was formed 1729 then Berks County was formed in 1752 from Bucks, Chester,Lancaster and Philadelphia. Cumberland County was formed in 1750 from Lancaster County. If they were in Pennsylvania by 1750 they might not have moved but the County boundries were changed.

WILL of JACOB OLWILLER

The Will of Jacob Olwiller is very interesting. (Lancaster Co.,PA.

"Gives his wife Anne her bed and bedstead and one cow and the house clock and what ever she needs of the household furniture. She shall have yearly the interest from 100 pounds of money. She is also to possess that apartment which is on the right side of 'my' house and third part of the garden. Stable room for one or more cows, and firewood is to be brought to her door. She is also to have one third of the grain produced also the fruit. Her cow is to be given feed and pasture. But... if she should remarry the money is to be divided among the children and the house clock is to go among the children.(This clock was brought to Indiana by Elizabeth and is now in the possession of Mrs. Leonard Swartz (Wilma Mikesell) of Indianapolis.)

Then a detailed stipulation as to the division of things given to the wife, in case she remarries, to go to the children.

Anne and Elizabeth are to each receive 25 pounds of money but the other daughters get none as he has previously made them gifts. The son, Philip, is to receive the land, all the stock, etc., but he has to pay four hundred pounds for it which is to be divided among his daughters, in this manner: in June of each year he is to pay each daughter 15 pounds each succeeding year until it is all paid out.

Philip is not to sell the land without his mothers consent, provided that she does not remarry. Philip is also to get one bed, the two stoves and the corner cupboard."

A letter was written to Minnie Lewis on 13 Aug 1928 from J.N. Olweiler(Clothing and Mens' Furnishings) Elizabethtown,PA.

Yes, there is an old abandoned mill on the old homestead farm of my great grandfather. This mill was in operation until about fifteen years ago(1913). The farm is owned by Mr. Ed. Keifer of Middletown,Pa. Owned by Mr. M. Nissley when I was a boy and visited grandfather. There was a family graveyard on two of these Olweiler farms, both gone to neglect. Our family was removed to our town cemetery when I was a boy.

The EPLER farm adjoining my grandfathers farm has a family graveyard in fairly good condition. One of these EPLERS was married to an Olweiler(Anne). But more than likely the SWARTZES lived close by. I expect to visit these old burying grounds as soon as possible and will see if any SCHWARTZES lie there. Middletown,PA. and Elizabethtown,PA. are about four miles from the old homestead farms. et."

From "Notes and Queries of PA. by Egle." This graveyard is on the line of the farms of I.B. Nissley,A.Witmer and M.Swartz in full view of the Fisher Farm made historic from the pear which bears that name and where it was grown. It is a spacious burial place enclosed by a new wall, protected by a well painted wooden cap or coping. An artistically wrought gate is on the western end of yard. EARLY SCHWARTZ FAMILY

MARGARET E. (SCHWARTZ/SWARTZ) KOONTZ/ KOONS

MARGARET E. SWARTZ was born in 1771 and was reared in Lancaster County, PA. Her ancestors came from Germany. She had three known brothers(at the time this written), MICHAEL, JOHN and CHRISTOPHER, who came to Indiana about 1798 and 1802 and probably another brother who remained in PA. She also had a sister Susan who remained in PA.

Mrs._____Kunkel whose maiden name was Swartz and who formerly lived at Gettysburg, PA. was a relative of Margaret E. (Elizabeth)Schwartz) Black. She must have been a niece, or daughter this other brother. She also had a sister Susanna(referred to above.)

Margaret married Isaac Koontz(Kuntz/Koons) b. 1 Feb 1760 Lancaster County, Pa. His ancestors came from the Netherlands,soon after the Revolutionary War. I take this opportunity to inform you that I received your letter on the 22nd instant.

We are all at present and hope that when the letter reaches you, you are enjoying the same blessing. Your letter afforded us great satisfaction to hear of your safe arrival at Cincinnati and that you are well, for your mother had almost despaired of you. I am sorry you had trouble with your little skiff and that you did not find Musselman there when you got there.

(The next letter in the family possession-no date)except 1830. This letter told him of the death of his father(Isaac 15 Aug 1830). This letter was addressed to Louisville,KY. One written by Phillip in Oct., the same year his mother sends this message, "Give my brother(meaning either Christopher or Michael) my love and tell him to write to me." The information on Margaret(Schwartz) Koontz was given from the records and bible by Mrs. E. B. Long, Charlestown, Indiana for the Schwartz/Swartz reunion at Galena, IN. August 27-28,1927.

The Isaac name was carried down in almost every line and generation of the family. Isaac I (Isaac and Margaret(Schwartz)Koontz (1760-1830). Isaac II (Isaac and Jane(Carnahan) Koontz. Isaac III. Isaac IV (son of Adam Koontz(1803-1883) Utica Twsh.,Clark Co.,IN.

A NOTE: Most all of the Koontz men understand the tanner's trade. Isaac Koontz, the son of Isaac and Margaret(Schwartz) Koontz,was a tanner and farmer, two others operated tanneries in PA.

My grandfather(quoted Mrs. E.B.Long) Adam Koons, operated a tannery on the farm where I was born and later owned, that is, it belonged to grandfather and we later inherited part of it and purchased the remainder. I can well remember the tanbark mill equipment and the two large buildings where the hides were cured. My father, Isaac Koons IV, hauled bark off of the Knobs (Floyd Co.,IN.) when he was only 12 years old. Think they used the hardwood barks mostly - hickory, oak and chestnut.

J. JOHN SCHWARTZ

John Schwartz born in Pennsylvania 1 Nov 1767 died in Clark County, Indiana 22 June 1824. He married 17 Jun 1792 Elizabeth Oldweiler. They settled in Utica Township, Clark County, Indiana about 1802 after he had come ahead and selected 270 acres which proved to be valuable land. He bought this land from Abram Epler in 1793. Michael and Catherine Schwartz sold 30 acres of a 500 acre tract to Abram Epler for $300.00 Grant 24, Book 4 - Page 25. "Records of December 3 1805 - located in Utica Township, Clark County.

"Beginning at an Ash Tree on line of Grant 24 - corner to John Schwartz then north 40 degrees, East 44 rods to a small creek thence South 40 degrees, East 44 rods or poles, crossing Lick Creek at 12 rods or poles to a stake standing one foot West of a Beech thence North 50 degrees East with a line of John Schwartz. Survey, Number 24, part of Capt. John Bailey's claim allowed him by Board of Commissioners for Military Service performed in Illinois Regiment and transferred to William Clark - covering by estimation 30 acres. Thus we are sure that Michael and John Schwartz owned land side by side in Clark Co.IN.

History of the Ohio Falls Counties..Vol. II,Page 410. John and Elizabeth Schwartz came from Pennsylvania in 1802, with a family of four children and settled five and a half miles above Jeffersonville. His vocation was farming. In Indian Wars he took an active part, but on account of his age did no fighting.

John Schwartz's family lived between Elizabethtown and Harrisburg, PA. This was a distance of about 18 miles.

J. JOHN SCHWARTZ/ SWARTZ

J. JOHN SCHWARTZ b. 1 Nov 1767 PA. (Some say in Germany) but probably in Berks Co., PA. Lived in Berks, Lancaster, Cumberland Counties, PA., and then moved Utica Township, Clark County, Indiana in 1802. He was at Carlisle(Cumberland Co., PA.) then to Jefferson Co.,KY. and in 1802 moved to Clark Co., IN. according to an old Newspaper clipping of 1873. John Schwartz is one of the early burials in the New Chapel Cemetery, Watson, Indiana.

Tradition is: Father of John Schwartz died early. Last Will shows the date 25 May 1791 and his mother Elizabeth(last name unknown)Last Will shows date of 20 Oct 1797. He and his twin borther carried on their father's mill after his death. (This does not mean the twin was a twin of John.) The twin (Casper) was drowned in the mill race. John and Casper were probably not twins but Casper and Christly(b. 1772) were twins. John Schwartz 1 Nov 1767 was killed by a runaway saddle horse at Port Fulton, near Jeffersonville 22 Jun 1824 when he was returning home from seeing his brother-in-law, Frederick Oldweiler, of PA.who had come to visit them.

NOTES: There is a discrepancy in the date of birth of Elizabeth (Oldweiler) Schwartz. Some of the family records give the date of her birth as 28 February 1769, but the old German Bible in the possession of Harry Schwartz, Missionary to Hawaii, gives the date of her death as January 20, 1775. Also her tombstone gives date of her death as April 1846 at the age of 71 years which would have made the year of her birth 1775. The latter date is believed to be correct and we will use the date 20 Jan 1775.

John and Elizabeth settled in Utica Township, Clark County, IN. about 1802 after he had come ahead and selected 270 acres which proved to be valuable land. Between 1803 and 1804 he erected a flour mill of the over-shot pattern on Six-Mile Creek. In a few years a saw-mill was attached to the grinding department, of the under shot style, which continued to run with different degrees of velocity until 1821, when it was discontinued on account of the scarcity of the times. The flour mill was run for 25 or 30 years.

BOTTORFF - sometime spelled POTTORFF

Louis Bottorff probably the oldest native born resident of Clark County died in his 94th year and had lived all his life in Charlestown Township. He was one of 14 of his mother and one of 24 born to his father. The longevity of this family was known, with branches of the family scattered all over the county. The Bottorffs whose name was in earlier days written as Pottorff came originally to Clark County from Pennsylvania(Berks Co.) though stopping on the way in Kentucky. By decent the family is Holland Dutch.

The father of Louis Bottorff came to Clark County in the year 1800. Prior to that time he had married in KY. and his wife and children accompanied him to his new home in the untamed wilderness. She and all ten children she bore him died in the early days. In 1815 he married again, his second wife being Miss Betsy Stonecipher, who bore him 14 childred of whom eight were still living. Since that time Gabriel Bottorff and Mrs. Sophia Long have died, each around 90 years old.

Louis Bottorff was the eldest of the family and was born 30 Jan 1817. As a young man he was married to Miss E. Christiana Kiger, who died several years after marriage of 60 years. His surviving daughters are Mrs. Brocklehurst and Mrs. Mary Lutz of Charlestown Twsh. Five members of the family lived to celebrate their golden wedding anniversary, William Jackson Bottorff, Charlestown, age 86, Lorenzo Dow Bottorff of Harrison County,IN. age 84, Joshua Bottorff of Quincy, IL. age 79, Mrs. Lucy Hisey, Harrison Co.,IN., age 77 and Mrs. Keller, Harrison Co.,IN. age 75.

John Bottorff, father of this remarkable family was a flat boatman and made three trips to New Orleans, LA. down the Ohio River, on each occasion returning on foot.

J. Henry Bottorff went to Louisville,KY. in 1793 to join the Rogers-Clark conquest of the northwest, but never arrived and they went on without him. Some years later, a knee buckle was found and identified as his, confirming the belief that his death was caused by wild animals or Indians. His widow Sophia Flicker Bottorff came to Clark County, IN. and died in 1846 age 93 years.

They moved in a flatboat by way of the Ohio River from Pittsburgh. They loaded household goods, horses, wagons, farm implements and family all in the boat. This took them many days to make the trip. 'REV' GEORGE SWARTZ, A PIONEER OF SOUTHERN INDIANA

(Copy of original newspaper clipping in possession, 1959,of Basil Clyde Holmes, of New Albany, IN. given to him by his grandmother, Mary Elizabeth (Prather)LeDuke) Holmes before her death Dec 17 1912)

NEW WASHINGTON,May 20, 1890 - "Have you seen father lately? queried Wiley Swartz, a prominent citizen of Utica township, as I met him on the streets of Jeffersonville a few days ago.

"Not for two years", I replied.

"Well, father is the oldest native born Hoosier in Indiana," said Mr. Swartz: "and as it is near noon hour get in with me and we will drive up and take dinner with him." We found the older Swartz in a cosy room at the house of his daughter, Mrs. Cook, and as dinner was just ready we were seated at the table as soon as the greetings were over. Rev. George Swartz noted as our host, and his kind attention and dignified manner carried us back to "ye olden time." A little grandson asked him if he knew me. He replied, " I have known his family from his grandfather, and an uncle to his grandfather, down.

Rev. George Swarts, the oldest native born citizen of this State now living, was born in Utica township, Clark County, on the 13 th of January 1803. His father, John Swartz, emigrated to Indiana, from a farm, upon which a portion of the city of Lancaster, Pa., now stands, in 1802. He selected 270 acres eight miles above the falls of the Ohio and one and one-half miles from where the town of Utica is located. John Swartz was one of the hardy pioneers, and labored with a zest worthy of his mission in helping develop the country. He was also an ardent worker in the Church, and took an active part in the organization of the first Methodist Episcopal Society in Indiana. In 1802, shortly after locating at his new home, a noted Methodist minister came to Basil Prather's, a neighbor's, and preached at night. Mr. Swartz, his wife and two oldest daughters and several members of the Prather family either joined or took membership that night and organized a church, that being the nucleus of the present large and prosperous congregation of New Chapel in that vicinity.

John Swartz was intimately acquainted with the older Harrison, and hauled the rock for his residence at Jeffersonville while General Harrison was Governor of Indiana Territory, but the seat of government remained there so short a time that Govenor Harrison never occupied the house. John Swartz was killed by being thrown against a tree by a runaway team in 1824.

Rev. George Swartz received such education as was scantily doled out to the youth of that day. The first school house of that vicinity, composed of round logs and windows of greased paper to admit the light, built in 1808, was where he received his education. One of the greatest drawbacks was the scarcity and costliness of school books A Dillworth speller was worth one dollar, equal to four dollars of today, and the arithmetics of that time were generally in manuscript, prepared by some educated person of the vicinity. He joined M.E. church at New Chapel at the age of seventeen, and has been a member of the same ever since, a period of over seventy years. He was licensed to preach two years later and offered a circuit, which was declined, as he thought it best to marry and have a settled home, He has, however done a great deal of preaching and executive work within this locality for the past sixty-five years, and has been one of the principal men in upbuilding and sustaining his church in the county.

He married at the age of twenty to Nancy Fry. The Fry family then, as now, were prominent citizens and descended from John Fry, who obtained a patent from the Crown of Great Britain for 2,034 acres of land which was located about 1765 by Colonel George Washington as surveyer in Lawrence County, Kentucky, embracing the present city of Louisville. At the beginning corner the future father of his country cut the initials of his name on a tree and they showed plainly for years. Mr. Swartz started in life by buying seventy acres of land in 1824, all heavily timbered. A clearing was soon made and a double log cabin errected and first occupied in 1825, he and his wife occupying the same homestead until 1888, adding more land, and a good brick house supplanting the double cabins in the meantime. Mr. Swartz represented the county in Legislature in 1851, that being the only political office he ever held. In the spring of 1888 Mr. and Mrs. Swartz gave up active life and removed to a married daughter's in Jeffersonville. Mrs. Swartz died September 10th of that year, their married life exceeding sixty five years. Their union was blessed with twelve children, all living to man and womanhood and all married except one. Only four of these are no living, George Wiley and Frank, both worthy and prosperous citizens of Utica, Mrs. Eliza Adams, of the same locality, and Mrs. Elizabeth Cook, of Jeffersonville. The elder Swartz family were sturdy pioneers and while they belted the trees of the forest, converted woodlands into fertile fields.

About the year 1812 General George Rogers Clarke, while spending a night in the vicinity, attended a debate at the school house. While taking part in the debate General Clark offered a fo'pence to the boy who would go to the spring and bring a bucket of water. Mr. Swartz then a lad of nine, eagerly ran and brought the water and received the money from the General, being the...(missing)...1815.

One Ditzler, living below town, seeing the light and hearing the noise and not knowing there was such a thing as a steamboat, thought the river was on fire, and that the world was coming to an end. He ran excitedly through the town, declaring the day of judgment was upon them, and his lamentations over his sinfulness were fearful. After the thrilling experience of that night Ditzler was a changed man, joined the church and led a consistent Christian life the balance of his days.

Mr. Swartz was the first man in his county to forbid the use of whiskey in the harvest field. The Bible has been his guide during his long life, and for years he has made a practice of reading it through once a year. He was blessed by nature with such an excellent constitution that despite the hard labor and exposure which he has been subjected to, he has enjoyed a life of almost uninterrupted health. Of a family of ten children, he alone survives. Of his descendants living are four children, twenty-two grand and thirteen great-grand children.

The Christian Church was organized and the earliest record in Jeffersonville was March 7, 1830. Differences regarding the Doctrine and members withdrew from the church on April 11, 1846. In 1850 Calvin Cook gave the congregation a lot on Watt St. near Maple; and Doctor Field furnished the material to build the church.

John Fry was not only a farmer but a good business man. The first bank in Clark County was a private bank at Jeffersonville. Then it was taken over by James Keigwin, Sr. and several others, and ran until in the 40's when it collapsed. The next banking business was the Bank of Jeffersonville,promoted by Samuel Judah, of Vincennes. George Savitz was the secretery of this bank, and the business was carried on in the room on Front Street which had been used by the Keigwin bank. Felix Lewis, Levi Sparks, John Fry, Jacob and George Swartz were stock holders, and the institution was considered a sound one.

His father was Hugh McCulloch originally from Scotland to Floyd Co., IN. in 1819. Many of the descendants have remained in this area. John McCulloch was probably the most prominent, making quite a fortune in business. At one time he was said to be the wealthiest man in the area.(This tid-bit is very interesting. John Fry was opposed to the marriage of his daughter Martha Ann to John McCulloch, financially or socially. Tradition says, he set out to show John Fry, how much money he could make. His son ran through much of his inheritance even though he left a good fortune to the current generation. The McCulloch family has always been interested in politics, however Floyd County is solid Democratic and the majority of the McCulloch's are Republican

His mother was Sarah Guest, an English woman from London.

Walter Earle was born on the farm and being the youngest in the family, inherited the homestead. We was the owner of a large estate and carried on the farming extensively. The home is located about midway between Jeffersonville and New Albany on the old interurban traction line. In 1907 he surveyed and platted thirty-five acres, making one hundred and forty-nine lots. He named this suburb Midway. He was the instignator and builder of the McCulloch boulevard, which extends from McCulloch Pike(built by his father at a cost of $17,500) to Howard Park on the south. He was an admirerer of good stock and always kept some high grade horses, cattle and hogs. They had a modern residence, beautiful of design and elegantly furnished.

Walter Earle was a member of the Third Presbyterian Church at New Albany, while his wife, Edith belonged to the Episcopal Church in Jeffersonville. He was a staunch Republican.

SOME ADDITIONAL NOTES ON THE FAMILY OF JOHN McCULLOCH

Walker McCulloch has often wondered how John McCulloch met Martha Fry as they lived such a distance, really worlds apart in that day and time. They were not of the same religion, so doubt they could have met at church. He has no idea how the McCulloch's came here but do know that the Guest ancestors came to the County about 1818 on a flatboat, because one of the Guest sons, it is recorded, fell off the boat around the Cincinnati area and drowned.

In reviewing some of the census records(1850-60-70) find one of the Dempster(this is another McCulloch connection) sons was born about 1814 in Ohio. So the theory that they all came here together is wrong. Again it may well be that this child was born in transit, and they were here still earlier than they believed. . . Howard McCulloch gave Walker a handcarved mantle clock, that was made by his gr.gr.grandfather, Joseph Carwardin. It is over 100 years old and is an interesting piece of handiwork.

According to the original Bible record(shown elsewhere in this book) Michael Schwartz/Swartz was born 27 Feb. 1764(6) married Catharine b. 15 Aug 1777. This would indicate that he was the first son of John and Elizabeth whose Wills were Probated as shown above.

This would indicate that Michael Schwartz remained near Harrisburg, Pa. where he married Catharine Scheets. He married young perhaps against his father's wishes the reason not being listed in his father(John) Will. The rest of the family moved across the Susquehanna River to be with the widowed mother, Elizabeth, whose Will was probated 30 Dec 1797. John Schwartz, born 1 Nov 1767 and married Elizabeth Oldweiler, moved his family(Elizabeth, Anna, John and Jacob) born at East Pennsborough, Cumberland Co., PA., and they latersettled in Utica Township, Clark County, Indiana Territory about 1802.

Christopher moved with the Omer family to Jefferson County, Ky. Christian or Christley remained in Jefferson Co. KY. until 1814 when he and Catherine(Omer) sold to Daniel Ammer. This is the same land which Christian bought of James Anderson on 25 Jan 1803 on Floyd's Fork. Floyd's Fork land is where Daniel Amer (Omer) first settled.

LEONARD SCHWARTZ

We know so little concerning Leonard Schwartz, a brother of Christopher. We know Leonard Schwartz had (3) brothers and one sister, which facts are gleaned from the Will of his brother CASPER SCHWARTZ, dated 16 Apr 1787, Bethel Township, Berks County, Pa. "QUOTE" Bk. B 209 To Trustees of Reformed Church in Tulpehocken 6 lbs. To Michael Schwartz, son of Brother Michael,desceased 10 lbs. Remainder to two brothers, John and Leonard and sister Elizabeth(Snebely). Wit:by Henry Styker and Jacob Didsenbach.

LUDWIG SCHWARTZ was a son of Leonard Schwartz, of Bethel Township. Berks Co., Pa. Leonard Schwartz made his Will 26 Jan 1803. It was proved 5 Aug. 1803.(Berks Co., Will Book #14 pg. 169). Probably died in the month of July. He names in his Will - son, Ludwig, daughter Barbara, wife of John Lesher,Jr.; daughter Catharine, wife of Adam Regel,: daughter Anna Maria, wife of Henry Krum(Crum) and Catharine. son John, desc., and John's four children(John,Magdalen and Anna Maria) He also had a son Leonard, not named in his Will but one week before making his Will, the father conveyed a track of land to such son.(Berks Co., Deed Book No. XX, page 106).

From a Deed dated 26 March 1759, we know that he was then living in Tulpehocken Township, Berks Co. and that he had a short time previously, married a widow, Elizabeth Batdorff, and it is believed that Ludwig Schwartz was born after this marriage.

Leonard Schwartz was taxed in Bethel Township in 1767 for 100 acres of land, and in 1780 he was taxed for 200 acres. It is clear that he was a substantial citizen but it does not appear he held any public office.

The earliest mention of Ludwig Schwartz is as a Revolutionary soldier. In the summer of 1776 then about 17 years old, he inlisted as a soldier in Captain Michael Wolff's Company, Col. Patton's Regiment, Berks Co., Militia and was in active service(2nd PA. Archives, Sec. Series, page 251) and later in life he received a pension from the U.S. Government.

On January 28, 1793, 90 acres of land were surveyed to Ludwig Schwartz and on March 5th same year, 100 acres were surveyed to him. On March 21, 1797 he conveyed land in Berks Co., and is described in the deed as 'of Bethel Township' Berks County, Deed Book 34, page 23.) He probably moved soon after this conveyance to York County, PA.

We know this Schwartz family religious as they were interested in forming churches. The German Reformed Church in Cumberland County, PA. had a subscription paper for this house, now used for school purposes exclusively, was dated April 4, 1797 and containing names and amounts among which were:

Johannes SCHWARTZ	11s	4d
Casper SWARTZ	7s	1
Christian SWARTZ	7s	6d

In May 26, 1797 the congregation obtained deeds for the land connected with the school house. Building committee, Leonard Swartz.

NOTES ON THE OMER FAMILY

Volume 1 of Brumbaugh states: Especial attention is directed to the fact that this census of 1776(Frederick Co., in this vol. and certain unpublished parts of the census) is a census not only of Maryland, but also of the 20 mile strip of former Pennsylvania soil and inhabitants brought into Maryland by the location of the Mason & Dixon Line(1763-1767) York County, PA. as the southern part was on this line.

Katharine Omer's father was Daniel Omer(or Amer) from York Co., PA. She also had a brother Daniel. Daniel's Will was probated at Charlestown, IN., 13 Jan 1877. It states that he left sons: James A. and John W. Omer., also daughters Martha, Lottie Lawrence, Anna Belle Brewer and granddaughter, Louie A. Noe.

Deed Book 6 page 372, Jefferson County, KY. Court House, in Louisville,KY. lists a deed dated 5 Jan 1803 between James Anderson of the County of Jefferson, and Mary, his wife, of the one part, and Christian Swartz of the County and State aforesaid.

Also, Deed Book U page 27, lists Deed made 24 Feb 1814 between Christian Swartz & Katherine, his wife, of the County of Jefferson, State of KY.: of the one part and Daniel Ammer of aforesaid County & State. This is apparently the same farm as the other deed, except it contains 160 acres, and the first deed was only 115 acres. Of course, Christian could have bought the additional acreage.

After Christian moved to IN. he sold 5 acres of this land to N. M. Phelps, and then later sold 37 acres to Daniel, his son. This was deeded 12 May 1836. This 37 acres was in the South & East end of Christian's land.

C. CHRISTOPHER/CHRISTLEY SCHWARTZ

There is one strange thing about this deed which Christian and Katherine gave to Daniel Ammer on the 24 Feb. 1814, that Katharine acknowledged the deedon 24 Feb.1814, but Christian's acknowledgement seems to be dated 10 Dec 1812 and on the margin it states: "Original delivered to Ammer 10 Oct 1832".

PART IV

THE HISTORICAL RECORD OF NEW CHAPEL METHODIST CHURCH - WATSON(CLARK COUNTY) IN.

The history of New Chapel Methodist Church dates back to 1801 when the first meetings were held in the home of Jeremiah Jacobs. Circuit riders served the congregation in those days. Samuel Parker and Edward Talbott have the distinction of serving as the first ministers.

The first log church was built in 1804, even before Indiana became a state. The value of this building was probably about $30.00. It was during this year that the noted Peter Cartwright served as a circuit rider. Dedication ceremonies were held in October 1807. Moses Ashworth was the assigned minister, Bethel, now a shrine at DePaue University, Bloomington, Indiana was dedicated in the morning and New Chapel in the afternoon of the same day.(Giving Charlestown, Indiana the distinction of having the first Methodist Church in Indiana.) The land on which the church stood was deeded to the trustees by Jeremiah and Rebecca Dowden Jacobs and their daughter Martha Jacobs and her husband, Walter Prather.

In 1811 the first church was replaced by a larger one at a cost of $200.00. This too, was a log church. Again in 1838 the second log church was torn down and a new church built of brick at a cost of $1,382.00. It stood at the site where the rock stile now stands, at the east end of the cemetery.

During the year 1834 the Utica Circuit was formed. The Rev. William V. Daniels served as the first presiding elder, with the Rev. Charles Bonner as the assigned minister.

Because of inadequate hitching facilities, the trustees again decided to raze the third structure and build a fourth church which is the present building as you see it today. The church was dedicated on March 30, 1884 by Presiding Elder G. P. Jenkins, Rev. W.W.Reynolds was serving as minister that year. The land on which it stands was deeded to the Trustees by Peter Deibel. (His farm adjoined the church grounds on the west side and the north side, too.)

New Chapel has furnished this community with five local ministers: The Rev. Solomon Jacobs, George and Jacob Swartz, Peter H. Bottorff and Rev. Dr. Jacob Bruner(great grandfather of Joetta Bruner Fry) the later also a physician.

The influence of New Chapel has also reached foreign shores through the Rev. Harry S. Swartz who served as a director of Religious Education in Hawaii, also a Missionary to Japan.

It is interesting to note that the name of Jacobs has appeared as a member of the Board of Trustees from the earliest history until the death of Ivan A. Jacobs in 1952. However, the name of Jacobs still remains in an official capacity in the appointment of Miss Nanetta Jacobs as Church Historian.

During 1915 the Methodist Parsonage was built by the three churches representing the Utica Charge, comprising New Chapel, Union and Utica at that time. Since then, Union Church as ceased to exist because of the Government acquisition of land for the Indiana Ordnance Plant. (The cemetery is inside the Indiana Ordnance fence and one must have permission to visit any family grave.)

The Rev. R.O. La Hue now retired, was the first minister to occupy the new parsonage. The land on which it stands was deeded to the Trustees by the late William Deibel.(This was printed in the Church Bulletin for the Annex Dedication Service and Home Coming on Sunday, Sep. 20, 1959). Since then that parsonage was sold and a new brick modern house built on land across the road from the church obtained from Francis and Jennie Stoner.

It has been said that he preached a splendid sermon. He closed his remarks by telling them the new building had been erected at a cost of $4,865.00 of which $1,000.00 remained unpaid. He said he wanted a thousand dollars and he was going to get it. Some of the members smiled and edged towards the door, but he told them they neen't try to get out, as he would let no man or woman escape.

The subscription then commenced at $50.00, $20.00, $10.00, $5.00, $2.00 and down to $1.00 until finally the hat was passed. This took until quarter past three o'clock in the afternoon. By that time it was announced that $1,004.95 had been subscribed, $400.00 of which had been paid in. This cleared the church of debt and it was then formally turned over to the trustees--John Glossbrenner, George W. Hazard and J. Frank Swartz.

In 1921 New Chapel was transferred from the Seymour District to the New Albany District, with the Rev. J.L. Freeland as District Superintendent

The next and greatest improvement, so far as value is concerned was the construction of the Annex in 1954-1955. This addition as you see it today was built for the better accommodation of the Sunday School Classes and activities.

The church steeple was rebuilt, and a new heating system installed during the fall of 1958.

The beautiful maple trees which surround the church were planted by Lewis Patrick, whose father, William Patrick was one of the first trustees of the church.

New Chapel Church has been the recipient of many useful and appreciated gifts - some given in memory of loved ones, and others as the need arose.(Such as memorial windows in memory of several families, an electric organ in memory of their son, given by Mr. and Mrs. Kemp, a baptismal font in memory of William E. Bruner who was killed in the Normany Invasion, given by his parents and sisters, Mr. and Mrs. Mel S. Bruner.

INDIANA'S OLDEST METHODIST CHURCH WITH CONTINUOUS SERVICES-ORGANIZED in 1801

(This information was contributed by Mrs.Wendell L. Fry,Jeffersonville, IN.)

A large envleope of keepsakes was sent to Wendell L. and Edith(Bruner) Fry from their Uncle John Lentz Peet, living in Orlando,Florida in 1973.

Basil Prather, Isaac Holeman, and Jeremiah Jacobs were all Revolutionary Soldiers and are buried with their families in the cemetery at New Chapel Cemetery, New Chapel Methodist Church, Watson, Indiana.

The early group came with the very early PA. Dutch Pioneers that settled near the Pioneer New Chapel Block House, a Fort on the Ruddell Farm, Utica Township, Clark County, Indiana - Charlestown-Utica Pike. The early settlers held church meetings in the red brick home of Jeremiah Jacobs II before Indiana was a State. As the crowd grew they built a long Meeting House on the plat area north of New Chapel Road at the foot of New Chapel Hill. They built a log church on the east end of the cemetery on the top of New Chapel Hill. Steps are stil there that were used to get on and off the horses. Land was bought from the Diebel Family for the red brick church that is quite active and modern as of 1968-1986. It is the oldest church in Indiana.

William Lentz bought the farm then Harry Dodsworth Peet,Sr., then John Herbert Fry. His two wives were Mary Edith Peet Fry and Emma Beatrice Coombs Fry. Wendell Lentz Fry was born in the brick home. In 1942 the U.S. Government bought the farm for the Powder Plant. The foundation around the yard was left. The creek from the Spring is called "Deer Creek" and goes to the Ohio River through the"Fry Community" along Utica-Sellersburg Road, Utica Township. J. Henry Bottorff was a pioneer Methodist Minister killed by Indians.

EARLY HISTORY OF CLARK COUNTY, INDIANA
UTICA TOWNSHIP - IT'S CHURCHES
CONCERNED WITH OUR ANCESTORS

From the Compiler: Fortunately I own both volumes of 'HISTORY OF THE OHIO FALLS CITIES AND THEIR COUNTIES" by L. A. Williams & co. 1882. I have checked much of the information given to me, however, there will always be errors.

We of the Schwartz/Swartz descendants with many ministers are very interested in the early churches.

Utica Township, where many of the early pioneer families located, is in the southeastern corner of the county. It is bounded on the north by the township of Charlestown, on the east by the Ohio River, which flows in a southwesterly direction and washes eight to nine miles of its territory; on the south by the river and Jeffersonville township; and on the west by the townships of Jeffersonville and Silver Creek.

We have a great many Revolution War Soldiers as early Pioneers and ancestors. Som of whom are: Isaac Holman, John Jeremiah Jacobs,Basil Prather, John Henry Bottorff, Samuel Park, Robert McGee, Jonathan Baird, John Jacob Bruner I, and others which I do not know about.

Some of the early pioneer who are related by marriage and intermarriage are: William Abraham and John Fry: John Lentz, John Swartz, Harry Dodsworth Peet, Sr. Families - Coombs,- Goodwin - Coons - Spangler - Hite - Sage - Grissamore - Young - Dunn - Hobson - Hilton - Smith - Lewman - Crum - Wiley - Tuttle - Morris - Ruddell - Rose - Adams - Diehel and many others Wilcox - Mitchell- Dowden- Robertson - Flicker - Marshall- Park - Martin- Oldweiller - Kline - Smiser - Whipps - Howk - Lentz - Swartz

UTICA METHODIST CHURCH - Utica,IN.

Religious services were held in the neighborhood of Utica at first in a shanty, built out of a flat-boat torn to pieces. Rev. Enoch G. Wood was one of the first preachers. The house was situated on Fourth Street and was owned by the Methodist Episcopal denomination.(John Lentz and his wife Catherine gave each church in Utica, IN. the plot of ground for their church). Calvin Ruter, the Ashtons and Clarks were active members. The next house occupied was the school building on the public square. This place of worship belonged to the Utica Circuit and had for preachers those given in the history of New Chapel Church. In 1847 a brick church was erected but served only a few years. The Utica Methodist Episcopal Church circuit was formed in 1843. Among those serving as ministers from 1847 to 1852 was Rev. John Jacob Bruner III.

NEW CHAPEL METHODIST CHURCH - Watson,IN.

The date of the New Chapel Methodist Episcopal church is not precisely known, but the best authority places the year of it organization as early as 1800. It IS ALSO KNOWN AS BELONGING TO THE OLDEST CIRCUIT IN THE STATE. As early as 1793 a preaching place had been maintained about one mile above Utica, and several Louisville Methodists, as Judge Prather,William Farquar, and John Bates, in the absence of a church,or even a class in a home, had their membership here. The organization of a class was effected at the home of Basil R. Prather, whose house had been a place of worship. In 1804 a round log house was erected on an acre of land in tract number thirty-seven, deeded to the Methodist Episcopal church by Jeremiah Jacobs and Walter Prather. It was built by subscription and worth when completed about $250. It had but one window, clap=board roof and the old style of stone chimney. As year went by, the church was torn down and replaced by a larger and better one three times.

Connected with the New Chapel Church is a handsome cemetery, enclosed by a stone wall on the east and both ends. A number of fine monuments are scattered about. It was the custom for the burials be placed with their feet toward the church. When the present church was built at the other end of the cemetery lot, the burials are facing the opposite direction.

When the Government took the huge area of Utica Township for the 3 powder plants many private cemeteries were lost. At least 7 cemeteries are maintained and a fence is around each. The original "New Chapel Meeting House" was located on the Jeremiah Jacobs II "Spring Castle Farm" at the bottom of New Chapel Hill road on the north side of the road. Many graves were lost when the original log building was no longer used. The early settlers used the Meeting House for many reasons and buried their dead near by. The families passed away and no one else knew where they were buried.

The Kenneth Graves farm had a walk of walking stones around the house made from Lewman and the Graves family tomb stones. The old stone fort on the Ruddell Farm had a large cemetery of very early settlers. Many were killed by Indians. About 1933 Ellis Potter removed all the stones and used the cemetery for a pasture. The Government was not told about the graves when the Powder Plant was built. Most homes that were built very early had a private cemetery. The Adams Family homes that were built very early had a private cemetery. The Adams Family gave 1½ acres to the New Chapel Cemetery since Clara Lentz Ross gave a large amount of money for a cemetery fund to maintain this beautiful cemetery. The negro people buried their dead in "Briar Hill" west of the David Prather farm on the Old Salem Road near the present Prather School, Prather, IN. (Permission can be granted to the Powder Plant -(at Gate #9) if proper creditials shown).

The first place of interment in the Western part of the township is now under cultivation. It was located on the farm originally owned by Abram Epler. There are buried here the Summers and Sage families perhaps more than 50 persons.

THE FIRST SWARTZ FAMILY REUNION

At Galena, Indiana August 27-28, 1927

Secretary - Minnie M. Lewis

W. C. Swartz of Danville, Illinois and Glenn N. Swartz were sitting on the latters porch at 1100 West Main St., Crawfordsville, Indiana, early in September 1924 talking. During that conversation, regretting their ignorance of their relatives and ancestors, they then and there took a vow that they would find out and know the Swartz relatives. Work and investigations were carried on with the result that an invitation was extended by the Galena, Indiana, people to hold their first family reunion in the Methodist Church at Galena. At a meeting of a number of Swartz relatives, at the home of Charles L. Swartz of Terre Haute, Indiana in May 1927, the invitation was unanimously and enthusiastically accepted and a committee consisting of W. C. Swartz of Danville, Illinois: W.C. Swartz of Terre Haute and Glenn N. Swartz of Crawfordsville, Indiana was appointed to complete plans and make arrangements for the reunion.

Considerable correspondence was carried on by the committee and as a result more than seventy-five people assembled at the church at Galena between 4 P.M. August 27th and noon August 28th, 1927.

The time between the hours of 4 and 6 P.M. August 27 was spent in looking over the cemetery surrounding the church and getting acquainted for many present had never met or heard of each other before.

Supper was served in the basement of the school by the people of Galena, Indiana.

Upon returning to the church, the real program was begun by the singing of old time songs in the old time way. This was followed by an address of welcome by Isaac Murphy of Georgetown, Indiana. W. C. Swartz of Danville, Illinois spoke on "How the Swartz Reunion Came to Be". and Glen N Swartz read a paper on "James Swartz, son of Michael and Catherine Swartz, and his descendants." After a discussion of the family history, the meeting of that night was concluded by a good night prayer.

Prior to the Sunday morning session, the relatives went in a body and visited the house that Michael Swartz built in Galena during the latter part of his life and lived - he died in 1849. Also, the building that was formerly a water power mill owned and operated by David and John Swartz and his son. This building is now used for an Odd Fellow Hall.

Returning to the church, new faces were present and acquaintances were made until the Sunday School hour. All the reunion proceedings were stopped and the Sunday School lesson was taught to the Swartz relatives in a separate class by W. C. Swartz in honor and in memory of Michael Swartz, the ancestor.

After the Sunday School hour the reunion proceedings were resumed and the following paper and talks were given:

1. Paper--Sarah(Schwartz)Perry by Mrs. Lucy(Perry)Shields of Putnamville, Indiana.

2. Talk-- George Swartz and his descendants by Isaac Murphy of Galena, Indiana.

3. Paper-- John, Christopher and Michael Swartz in Clark County, Indiana by Miss Rebecca Jacobs of Jeffersonville, IN., a descendant of John.

4. Paper-- Margaret and Susan Schwartz of Cumberland County, Pennsylvania and their brothers by Mrs. E. B. Long of Charlestown, Indiana.

5. Talk-- Michael Swartz of Hardinsburg and his descendants and a paper - "The Swartzes in Floyd County History and Court Records" written by Mrs. Anna Coombs of New Albany, Indiana, which was co-written by Miss Virginia Cravens of Hardinsburg, Indiana.

At close of the dinner hour Mrs. Grace Schwartz-Walbridge of Hoopeston, Illinois, who has traced her own ancestors back to their crossing the ocean, gave some of her family history and some suggestions for tracing back ones ancestory.

This was followed by a short business session in which it was voted to hold a reunion in 1928 and the following officers were elected.

President - Dr. W.C. Swartz, Danville, IL.
Vice-Pres. - Glenn N. Swartz, Crawsfordsville,IN.
Secretary - Minnie M. Lewis, Brazil, IN.
Treasurer - Ivan A. Jacobs, Sellersburg, IN.

Mrs. E. B. Long, Mrs. Lucy(Perry) Shields and Glenn N. Swartz were appointed as a committee to select the time, place, etc., for next years reunion.

In the afternoon, lead by Isaac Murphy, they drove up hill and down hill, round curves and through fields to the spot where formerly stood the old log church which Michael Swartz and his wife Catherine (Scheetz)Swartz were buried. Here unique memorial services were held in honor of Michael and his profound belief and trust in God.

As a Swartz man stood at each corner stone on which the old church had rested and after each man had offered a prayer, the other descendants entered the square which they formed, sang old hymns, offered prayers and gave testimonials in the old time way of their faith and belief in God.

After visiting some of the graves that were accessible and flowers were scattered by a descendant, the reunion came to a Close, each going to his own home with a feeling of sacred joy and that the time had been well spent.

NOTE: Remember that was 60+ years ago when written.

THE SECOND SWARTZ FAMILY REUNION

At Watson, Indiana August 25-26, 1928

Secretary - Minnie M. Lewis

The second Swartz Reunion was held in the present New Chapel Church near Watson, Clark County,Indiana, August 25-26, 1928.

The relatives began to gather in the church yard between 3:30 and 4 P.M. August 25th. In a body, they then visited the cemetery adjoining the church on the east side. The graves of John and Elizabeth(Oldweiler) Swartz and Christopoher Swartz and wife, Catharine (Omer) Swartz and their immediate descendants had been fittingly marked for the attention of the visitors.

The site of the first three old churches which stood just east of the cemetery was marked only by the old stone steps that led down into that final resting place of those who built them. While these people thought of land, they also thought of god and due honor was given to that virtue in prayer by Mr. Abram Crum of Charlestown and Cousin Will, Dr. W. C. Swartz of Danville, IL.

Upon the return to the church the meeting was called to order by the President and registration and tagging was begun. A system of color cards was used in the tagging-- each line of descent being represented by a different color. At 5:45 P.M. supper, which was spread on two long tables in the maple grove at the back of the church, was served by the good cooks from Jeffersonville, Charlestown and the surrounding community. The meeting was resumed at 7:30 P.M. and continued by singing very old hymns lined off by Cousin Will Swartz and the relating of little incidents in the lives of their early ancestors. After good night prayers, all departed looking forward to the reunion the following morning.

Early Sunday morning a few of the Schwartz descendants. in company with Mr. Will Barnett, visited the first church built in Indiana. (NOTE: This is now on campus, DePauw University, Greencastle, Indiana.) It is built of logs and has been moved to Charlestown and put under a large roof so that it will be preserved of many years to come. They also saw in the Charlestown Cemetery, the monument to the first Governor of Indiana, Jonathan Jennings.

They next visited the old farm of John and Elizabeth Schwartz, located near the New Chapel Church. At the foot of a hill near the end of the farm lane, they drank from the same spring whose clear,cool water quenched the thirst of John, Michael and Christopher in the long ago. Across the hollow about three hundred feet from the spring, out of a tangle of weeds and little old morning glories on the side of another hill across the whitened with years, long, high, many windowed, brick home of John and Elizabeth. The interior of this three story and an attic building is in a state of decay, but when one has climbed the many stairs to all the rooms wherein each is a large fireplace and adjoining cupboards and closets, he can but imagine what a HOME it must have been in those olden days.

Sunday School began at 9:30 A.M. Mr. Isaac Murphy of Georgetown assisted by Cousin Will taught the adult men relatives and Mr. Abram taught the ladies the regular Sunday lesson.

Immediately after the Sunday School Hour the reunion got under way again. The auditorium was almost filled with the relatives and after singing the old time hymns, three papers were read:

1. "When New Chapel was New", written by Mr. Frederick C. Koons of Chicago and read by Mr. Lawrence Hester of Charlestown. (Many thanks to Mr. Hester for the many kindness shown us.)

2. "John and Elizabeth (Oldweiler) Schwartz". by Miss Ruth Jacobs, a descendant of Elizabeth(Swartz) Jacobs.

3. A summary of information and happenings of the past year was read by the secretary.

Among these notes was the tradition of the John Schwartz family as written by Rev.Henry(Harry) Schwartz of Hawaii.

"As I remember it," it runs as follows:
My Grandfather, John Schwartz, was born(I think in Lancaster County, Pa., in 1767. His father's name I never heard. My impression is that he died early and that my grandfather lived with his mother. He had a twin brother(name unknown) and the tradition goes that the two boys lived with their mother and ran the mill. One morning the mother was busy with her work as usual but happened to look out of the window, she saw her son passing it on his way to the entrance.As had not come in,however, after waiting sometime, the mother became anxious and went to the door to see what had happened. Just as she opened the door, she met some men bringing in his dead body. He had been drowned in the mill-race just about the time his mother saw him pass the window.

The superstition that of one of a pair of twins dies a violent death was justified in this case when grandfather was thrown from his horse against a tree and killed.

I have always heard that he first settled in Kentucky but because it was a slave state he did not like it there and moved again and settled in Utica Township, Clark County, Indiana, in 1802.

Michael Schwartz of Clark County and then of the place he named "Germantown", now Galena, Floyd County, Indiana, is said also to have first lived in Jefferson County, Kentucky, near Louisville and also a brother-in-law of John Swartz. When he moved to Clark County, Indiana, no one knows, but records show him as one of the early settlers in what is now Franklin Township, Clark County, witness to a land sale in 1803 and he sold land in Utica Township adjoining John Swartz in the Illinois Grant #24 in 1805. He was a trustee of New Chapel Church in 1811 and a Class Leader at a Quarterly Meeting at Salem Church in Silver Creek Circuit, June 3, 1815, then we do not know where he was for five years until he was in Georgetown Township, Floyd County, in 1820. He died in Galena, Greenville Township, Floyd County, in 1849.

The body voted to pay the bills for stationery, stampa, etc., used for the reunion purposes and decided to take subscriptions which were received then and during the noon hour when the good cooks again fed the hungry.

With stomachs and hearts both full, the good fellowship was continued with talks. Mr. Isaac Murphy of Georgetown told about Michael of Galena and the secretary read select paragraphs from letters received from their most distant relative, Cousin Henry Schwartz of the Hawaiian Islands.

A motion made by Mr. Ivan Jacobs of Sellersburg was carried to hold a reunion next year.

The President appointed the following as a committee on nominations: Wallace Jacobs, Abram Crum and Mrs. E. B. Long.

The following officers were nominated and elected:

President - Dr. W.C. Swartz, 612 The Temple, Danville,IL.
Vice Pres. - Isaac Murphy, R #4 Georgetown,Indiana
Secretary - (Miss)Minnie M.Lewis,R#1,Box 32,Brazil,IN.
Treas. -Walter A.Swartz,629 E.Maple St.Jeffersonsonville, IN.

The President then appointed as a General Committee:

Mrs. E.B. Long, Charlestown, Indiana
Miss Ruth Jacobs,1022 Locust St.Jeffersonville,IN.
Mrs.Lawrence Zimmer, Maple & Locust, Jeffersonville,In.

The meeting of over one hundred and fifty happy relatives was closed with prayer by Messrs. Abram Crum, Isaac Murphy and Cousin Will Swartz.

A NOTE ON THE SWARTZ REUNION NOTICE- Interesting

The Swartz Family Reunion for 1928 was to be held at the New Chapel Church, about seven miles north east of Jeffersonville,IN. on August 25,26. This includes all the descendants of John Schwartz, Michael, Christopher, Margaret and Susan Schwartz. This was the original home church of John, Michael and Christopher. In the cemetery round the church lie the remains of John and Christopher, while those of Michael lie some twelve miles to the west in an old deserted cemetery about three miles south of Galena.

HOW TO GET THERE. Those coming by motor will take U.S. Road 31 to Sellersburg. Then take county road to Watson, then east one mile to the church. Those coming on trains will get to Jeffersonville from New Albany by trolly which runs every 30 minutes. Here, members of the reception committee will guide you to the Indianapolis Interurban. If this is missed go to the Clark Hotel and inquire. Take the Indianapolis Interurban local or the Charlestown trolly and get off at "The Pines." Here you will be met and taken to the church which is near "The Pines" stop.

SWARTZ FAMILY REUNION

Garfield Park, Indianapolis, Indiana

Sunday, August 10, 1930

Mr. and Mrs. Albert G. Bruckheimer live on Bridge St. Gary, Indiana. Not far from them on Madison St., live Mr. and Mrs. R. Bivans. The husbands have known each other for a long time as they are Brother Odd Fellows. Both families were certainly surprised when a letter of invitation to the Schwartz reunion informed them that Mrs. Bruckheimer and Mrs. Bivans were granddaughters of two brothers, David and John, sons of John of Putnamville, son of Michael and Catherine Schwartz/Swartz.

A few years ago there attended DePauw University, Greencastle, Indiana from different parts of the State of Indiana, Miss Kate Stanford of Brookston and Miss Virginia Cravens of Hardinsburg,Indiana. Miss Cravens knew her relatives in Greencastle, Miss Stanford, now Mrs. Kate Hair of New York City, knew the Misses Flora and Beth Vandament and visited in the Vandament home in Greencastle. None of them knew until they met again at the 1930 Swartz Reunion that there was a common ancestory just a few generations back to two sons of Michael and Catherine(Scheets) Swartz.
